Pre-historic Nations, Or, Inquiries Concerning Some of the Great Peoples and Civilizations of Antiquity, and Their Probable Relation to a Still Older Civilization of the Ethiopians Or Cushites of Arabia John Denison Baldwin, 1869 Pre-Historic Nations John D. Baldwin, 2015-06-24 Excerpt from Pre Historic Nations Or Inquiries Concerning Some of the Great Peoples and Civilizations of Antiquity and Their Probable Relation to a Still Older Civilization of the Ethiopians or Cushites of Arabia The origin of man and the date of his first appearance on earth have always been subjects of speculation We see this in the cosmogonic myths and legends of antiquity and in the dogmatic chronologies that have been allowed currency in modern times but so far as we know it is only in very recent times that visionary speculation on these topics has given way to enlightened inquiry The cyclical schemes of the ancient Eastern world which computed by tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands the years of man's existence on earth previous to the regular beginnings of history may be treated with small ceremony now but they are quite as scientific as Archbishop Usher's scheme of chronology for the men who invented them were skilful astronomers and whoever undertakes to show that they are not quite as reasonable may discover that something can be said on the other side of this question These cyclical estimates of the past may turn out to be as near the truth as Usher's system of chronology but neither the one nor the other can now be accepted as an intelligent and truthful exposition of the antiquity of the human race About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Pre-Historic Nations John D. Baldwin,2017-09-17 Excerpt from Pre Historic Nations Or Inquiries Concerning Some of the Great Peoples and Civilizatins of Antiquity and Their Probable Relation to a Still Older Civilization of the Ethiopians or Cushites of Arabia We nowhere find a continued and permanent advance ment of any nation or community of these races but we see a constant progress of civilization from lower toward higher degrees from the few to the many and from limited and special toward many sided and all embracing develop ment Nations rise ourish and sink again to obscurity The Egypt of to day is not that Egypt which we see in the monuments of its Old Monarchy Chaldea is not now the ancient Chaldea which we study in its ruins to day we inquire in vain on the coast of Asia Minor for that Ionian confederacy whose marvelous culture passing over intodisappeared this old civilization has remained sometimes checked and lowered for a succession of ages but always reappearing with new developments of its forces and new forms The Reverend Dr Lang in his View of the Origin and Migrations of the Polynesian Nation is led by the sub ject to make this observation In Tuscany and in Egypt in India and in China and I will add even in the South Sea Islands and in both Americas we behold the evidences of a primitive civilization which in some instances had run its course anterior to the age of Homer but which at all events acknowledged no obligation to the wisdom or refinement of the Greeks Few will question the fact he states so far as relates to Italy and Asia although not many who carefully study the past will describe all that civilization as primitive Dr Lang himself is not quite satisfied with this description for in attempting to ex plain the origin of the ancient civilization which had near ly run its course in different countries previous to the time of Homer he adopts the notion of Bailly and others that it was originated by the antediluvians and brought through the Deluge to their successors by the family of Noah Ivithout fully exploring it he saw a fact that was much too large for his chronology a fact for which there was not sufficient room in the past as he measured it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
