Preacher Woman Sings The Blues The Autobiographies Of Nineteenth Century African American Evangelists:

Preacher Woman Sings the Blues Richard J. Douglass-Chin, 2001 Preacher Woman Sings the Blues begins with the study of black evangelists Belinda Jarena Lee and Zilpha Elaw continuing with Rebecca Cox Jackson Sojourner Truth Julia Foote Amanda Smith Elizabeth and Virginia Broughton The author's discussion of Zora Neale Hurston focuses on how Hurston operates as a connection between early black women evangelist writers and black women writing in America today He ends with the works of Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Toni Cade Bambara By examining the early traditions prefiguring contemporary African American women's text and the impact that race and gender have on them Douglas Chin shows how the nineteenth century black women's works are still of utmost importance to many African American writers today Preacher Woman Sings the Blues makes a valuable contribution to literary criticism and theoretical analysis and will be welcomed by scholars and students alike Book Jacket New Media in Black Women's Autobiography T. Curtis, 2015-03-04 Examining novelists bloggers and other creators of new media this study focuses on autobiography by American black women since 1980 including Audre Lorde Jill Nelson and Janet Jackson As Curtis argues these women used embodiment as a strategy of drawing the audience into visceral identification with them and thus forestalling stereotypes Transnational Africana Women's Fictions Cheryl Sterling, 2021-09-30 This book explores the works of women writers and filmmakers across the African and African Diaspora world reflecting on how the transnational sphere can serve to highlight voices that were at the margins of gender and race hierarchies The book demonstrates how in discourse and theory Africana women are the centers of their own knowledge production and agency as the artists and their characters point the way forward Their multi-perspectivism leads to avenues of selective mutuality and influence to generate transformative creative work scholarship and practices Writers included are Sylvia Wynter Edwidge Danticat Amanda Smith Werewere Liking Chimamanda Ngozi Adiche Sefi Atta NoViolet Bulawayo Nnedi Okorafor Mariama B Ama Ata Aidoo Igiaba Scego L onara Miano Gis le Hountondji Monique Ilboudo and Maryse Condé as well as filmmaker Kemi Adetiba Over the course of the book the contributors critically explore and update the canon on women in the African and African Diaspora literary sphere highlighting their contributions to theoretical debates and providing substantive nuance to diasporic subjectivity This book will be of interest to scholars of African and Africana Studies comparative literature and women and gender studies The World's Greatest Religious Leaders Scott E. Hendrix, Uchenna Okeja, 2018-03-01 This book provides reliable information about important world religious leaders correcting the misinformation that can be on the internet Religious leaders have shaped the course of history and deeply affected the lives of many individuals This book offers alphabetically arranged profiles of roughly 160 religious leaders from around the world and across time carefully chosen for their impact and importance and to maximize inclusiveness of faiths from around the world Scholars from around the world each one an expert in his or her field and all holding advanced degrees came together to create an essential resource for students and for those with an interest in religion and its history

Every entry has been carefully edited in a two stage review process guaranteeing accuracy and readability throughout the work Not strictly a biographical reference that recounts the facts of religious figures lives the book helps users understand how the selected figures changed history The entries are accompanied by excerpts of primary source documents and suggestions for further reading while the book closes with a bibliography of essential print and electronic resources for further research

A Mysterious Life and Calling Charlotte S. Riley, 2016 A critical edition of a newly discovered autobiography this is a rare glimpse into the life of a woman who was an educated urban slave in Charleston South Carolina served after the American Civil War as a minister of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and contributed as a preacher teacher and postmistress to civic development in post Reconstruction and early twentieth century South Carolina Turn the Pulpit Loose P. Pope-Levison, 2016-04-30 Turn the Pulpit Loose features the lives and words of eighteen women evangelists including Sojourner Truth and Evangeline Booth and lesser known figures such as Jarena Lee an African Methodist from the early 1800s and Uldine Utley a child evangelist in the early 1900s who helped to shape American religious life from the nation s infancy to the present Highlighting substantial primary sources sermons articles diaries letters speeches and autobiographies Priscilla Pope Levison weaves together fascinating narratives of each woman s life her conversion and calling to preach her primary evangelistic method and her reflections about women in general This anthology complete with photographs of each evangelist is an indispensable resource for a wide range of academic fields including religion history women s studies and literature

Building the Old Time Religion Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2013-12-06 2015 Smith Wynkoop Book Award presented by the Wesleyan Theological Society 2014 Choice Outstanding Academic Title During the Progressive Era a period of unprecedented ingenuity women evangelists built the old time religion with brick and mortar uniforms and automobiles fresh converts and devoted prot g s Across America entrepreneurial women founded churches denominations religious training schools rescue homes rescue missions and evangelistic organizations Until now these intrepid women have gone largely unnoticed though their collective yet unchoreographed decision to build institutions in the service of evangelism marked a seismic shift in American Christianity In this ground breaking study Priscilla Pope Levison dusts off the unpublished letters diaries sermons and yearbooks of these pioneers to share their personal tribulations and public achievements The effect is staggering With an uncanny eye for essential details and a knack for historical nuance Pope Levison breathes life into not just one or two of these women but two dozen

Weary Throats and New Songs Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2003
Teresa Frye Brown's music ministry forms a background for her application of music as a metaphor to the preaching moment In this book she interviews numerous preaching sisters and uses categories from her homiletics courses to structure the data that she found in the interviews The result is a helpful Black Women's Commentary on the Homiletic Process The first couple of chapters provide information on ordination and call that every male minister of the Gospel should keep in mind It is a review of the gender barrier to ordination Interestingly enough this aspect of the book also demonstrated the resolve of our sisters to find ways and means to preach the gospel irregardless of these barriers While we should never accept discrimination in any form I did find the list of venues for women's in ministry to be a very helpful way to see other possible ways to minister apart from the pulpit in the church that all ministers male and female should look at Our sisters have shown us the way to greater ministry After call and ordination Brown moves to a discussion of Biblical exegesis themes and structures for sermons by Black women I found that this section demonstrated that while some women have a tendency towards preaching actively for liberation of women most of the themes such as purpose hope and liberation of the poor holds much in common with the Black male preacher From Amazon.com

Religion in African-American Culture Winfried Herget, Alfred Hornung, 2006 This volume focuses on the multi faceted significance of religion in African American literature and culture of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The series of essays addresses religion as part of the self empowerment of African American women as itinerant preachers the curious intermingling of Catholicism and Voodoo in Louisiana Creole culture the representation of Obeah women and the tradition of the folk sermon in James Weldon Johnson The Harlem Renaissance provides the backdrop for the discussion of Afro Modernism and religion in Claude McKay's and Jean Toomer's works for the analysis of African American folk plays by Richard Bruce and Georgia Douglas Johnson and a comparison of Nella Larsen's and Ralph Ellison's critical views of religion as well as an illustration of the connections between spiritual search and the blues in Ellison's works Discussions of the contemporary scene include the poetry of Robert Hayden twentieth century African American intellectuals views on religion and history and the acceptance of the Nation of Islam as an American religion
