Preaching As Local Theology And Folk Art:

Preaching as Local Theology and Folk Art Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 1997 Showing that good sermons are really local theology and folk art Princeton s Leonora Tubbs Tisdale tells how to analyze a congregation to fit a sermon to the audience The book then gives practical help for preparing and delivering sermons that are meaningful and appropriate Tisdale draws from contextual theology and congregational studies

Preaching in an Age of Globalization Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2010-01-01 There are many books on the market that address how culture race gender or economic status affect the way preachers preach and congregations hear sermons This is the first book to address preaching that promotes solidarity across these differences Preaching needs to be targeted to specific contexts But how can a preacher handle specific contexts when we live in a globalized world What does local context mean and who defines it Kim develops the concept of trans contextual preaching to show how preachers can respect diversity and global connections She develops a new theology of preaching examines the modes of biblical interpretation appropriate for trans contextual preaching and explores designs for sermons Sample sermons from the author provide excellent illustrations

Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermonic preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology Sent and Gathered (Engaging Worship) Clayton J. Schmit, 2009-10-01 Historic changes are occurring in the convergence of worship styles throughout the Christian church Christians across the theological spectrum are seeking to learn from their own tradition s roots and from the liturgical expressions of believers in other times and places Here worship expert Clayton Schmit examines worship in church settings around the globe and provides a practical manual for shaping liturgies that are informed by and relevant to contemporary missional contexts The book broadens current ecumenical worship conversations reveals insights drawn from the church at worship in the world and argues for a common understanding of a theology of worship

Preaching in Place Mark R. Rigg, 2022-06-29 Why is preaching so often bad Why is worship so often dull Why do Sunday mornings so often fail to help the folks in the pews live a faithful life from week to week And what can be done about it Many will tell us that there are easy and purchasable fixes More technology Less tradition Virtual worship Thinking big The land and the farm model for us a different path As Mark Rigg shows in this concise introduction to Wendell Berry the themes that have illuminated the Kentucky farmer s essays fiction and poetry for fifty years have a great deal to say to the church They offer an agrarian model of church where the focus is on the local the tangible and the communal Out of such a model emerges a new approach to preaching Both congregation members and preachers themselves will find themselves called to turn away from sermons that echo the promises of an individualistic consumer culture and to proclaim instead Jesus Christ in the midst of the local community Preaching without Borders Ryan Roach,2022-09-08 Though the United States has been a relatively diverse nation Americans have historically lived close to those who are ethnically and culturally like them The unfortunate effects of slavery Jim Crow segregation housing discrimination prejudice and bigotry have been key reasons for demographic divisions While divisions remain communities that were once monoethnic are experiencing changes that are enriching The challenge for these communities is to work to break down barriers that prevent lasting authentic relationships resulting in spiritual growth Churches in these communities are at a crossroads and face a choice do they keep doing what is comfortable despite the changes in their neighborhoods or do they work to resemble their neighbors Preaching Without Borders addresses the challenges preachers face when they attempt to be faithful to the text while contextualizing it so that people of every nation tribe and tongue can be transformed by Jesus The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation Cleophus J. LaRue,Luiz C. Nascimento,2020-08-03 Christianity is turning brown and moving south The Christianity the West has known is in recession and has all but dwindled out of recognition in the opening years of the twenty first century Well over half of the world s Christians now live in the Global South Africa Asia and Latin America They are according to Aberdeen missiologist Andrew Walls the new Representative Christians What they think about Christianity will matter more and more and what North America thinks about Christianity will matter less and less This massive shift in geography and theological point of departure will have a major impact on Christian preaching now and into the future The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation seeks to begin the conversation about how preaching in the Global South will inform the whole of Christian preaching in the coming years Breathing Patterns Robert P. Hoch,2010-04-29 Preaching to the choir is always complicated but especially so when that choir happens to be a seminary community In this collection of sermons delivered in the chapel of the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary PCUSA Robert P Hoch Assistant Professor of Homiletics and Worship weaves together life experiences careful readings of the Scripture and pastoral wisdom for the benefit of seminarians pastors and educators Often poetic Dr Hoch s sermons are crafted so that they speak not only to the peculiar life of a seminary community but more broadly to the larger life of the church Beyond the sermons themselves readers will hear Dr Hoch s reflections on individual sermons reflections that sometimes betray the sermon behind the sermon Whether as a student seasoned pastor or officer in the church readers will find in these pages a partner with whom they can share the journey of faith

Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2004 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women's preaching this book makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics because it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection It is the author's hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective Kim gives a detailed account of women preachers from ancient times until the present from women of the Western and Eastern churches to women of Asian and Latin American churches showing the perspectives and insights that increase and enhance our understanding of who God is and what God is doing as well as the implications for preaching now and in the future Women Preaching is a call to the church to accept women preachers as a matter of justice and a theological necessity

A Sermon Workbook Leonara Tubbs Tisdale, Thomas H. Troeger, 2013-10-15 Both experienced and novice preachers need a new approach for sermon development skill building A Sermon Workbook offers a unique and flexible resource that is instantly accessible and useful for anyone tasked with the proclamation of the Word The workbook format can be used in a linear fashion beginning to end Or readers can pick and choose the chapters to tailor fit their own needs In either case readers build skill upon skill working through inventive and engaging exercises first developed and taught at Yale Divinity School The book addresses the skills and arts that are essential for effective preaching in our multi tasking multi ethnic sound bite society It offers theological clarity about why we preach and what matters most The creative collaborative and charming authors present the principles as they do in their classroom in two voices one male and one female with the two complementing and supporting one another

Where the Edge Gathers Yvette A. Flunder, 2005 In Where the Edge Gathers Flunder uses examples of persons most marginalized by church and society to illustrate the use of village ethics knowing where the boundaries are when all things are exposed and village theology giving everyone a seat at the central meeting place or welcome table She focuses on the following marginalized groups 1 same sex couples to convey the need to re examine sexual and relational ethics 2 transgendered persons to illustrate the importance of radical inclusivity 3 and gay persons living with AIDS to emphasize the need to de stigmatize society's view of any group of people The book which combines both Flunder's personal experiences with marginalized people and theological and pastoral literature on the topic will appeal to denominational leaders and clergy who minister to the marginalized and or the inner city The Great American Sermon Survey Lori Carrell,2000 The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language Prepare a Road! Kim L. Beckmann,2002-05-25 Lutheran pastor Kim Beckmann presents a challenging new method for engaging scripture in the preparation of sermons for the parish Utilizing the preacher s own sense of vocation the community s voice and the collective vision for the Gospel in the marketplace Beckmann teaches us how to read the scriptures with fresh eyes to see the coming Kingdom of God in encounters and events as ordinary as going on site with a local bulldozer operator to prepare a road in the wilderness A fresh and exciting look at preaching community and the Word of God as it is lived every day by the People of God In my sermon writing cell surrounded by a feast of commentary I find myself casting a wandering and wondering eye out the window toward the village square where this gospel my message will finally have to live What if the sermon could be conceived in the very soil in which it has to take root While many of us consider the Bible to be the favorite storybook into which we want to climb we nevertheless often find its language inaccessible its setting unfamiliar and the apprehension of its real meanings for daily life frustrating to pursue In our frankly market driven society where such a difficult story must compete with many other stories that are both easier to access and seemingly easier to inhabit the gospel story calls forth faithful and inspired interpreters and equally faithful and inspired tellers Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1999 Current Contents.
