Preaching In Today's World:

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its usefulness. The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word. Lloyd M. Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word.

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Merle Perry, 1990 A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen, 2023-05-26 I am a pastor. I preach. Doesn't that make me a pastoral preacher? Not necessarily. Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched, not the church. The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see. Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching, but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching? David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching. He writes, "Social media changes the way we preach. More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons. These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth. We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people's attention because the digital world is built on attention; whatever will get likes or drive outrage. However, pastoral preaching builds community. It is rooted in local soil to the people we know in the place we live. We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place."
