Preaching Lukes Gospel A Narrative Approach:

Preaching Luke's Gospel Richard A. Jensen, 1997 Preachers and Bible teachers will find this book helpful in guiding them to be biblical storytellers Testimonies to the value of Dr Richard Jensen s book have been numerous and include the following Rather than preach about the biblical text one is encouraged and equipped to proclaim the biblical narrative His book is refreshingly practical and biblical It stimulates biblical preaching preparation and proclamation The preacher is moved from telling a story to telling the story Pastor Paul Gunsten St Philip Lutheran Church Roanoke Virginia I really appreciate the direction each chapter opens for possible preaching emphasis I thought the first few chapters might just be flukes but each succeeding one holds its own Thanks Pastor William Lawson Trinity Lutheran Church Green Bay Wisconsin Through a process of narrative analogy Dr Jensen shows how the stories in the appointed texts of the Revised Common Lectionary relate to the other stories in Luke Acts In so doing he opens up new discoveries for preaching Richard A Jensen is well known for his 10 years of preaching for the national radio program Lutheran Vespers He is currently Dean of the Program for Doctor of Ministry in Preaching sponsored by the Association of Chicago Theological Seminaries and also professor of Homiletics at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago In addition to three years of teaching in Ethiopia Jensen has served as professor at Dana College Wartburg Theological Seminary and Luther Northwest Seminary He has served as Producer Host of two television series and is the author of eight books and numerous published articles Preaching Matthew's Gospel

Richard A. Jensen, 1998 Jensen s research and insights provide a stimulating resource on Matthew s Gospel Jensen provides Homiletical Directions at the end of each chapter that will help the preacher find a focus and locate themes for preaching the text Jensen points to the ways in which the biblical writers lock their stories together with other stories in order to give fuller meaning to their narratives He covers material that is not included in the assigned lectionary texts and discusses the inter relatedness of Matthew s stories These narrative analogies imply that preaching on Matthew s Gospel may at times be a retelling of two or more Matthean stories This is the third installment in Jensen s series which also includes Preaching Mark s Gospel and Preaching Luke s Gospel Richard A Jensen is the Axel Jacob and Gerda Maria Swanson Carlson Professor of Homiletics at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago He is also Dean of the Doctor of Ministry in Preaching program of the Association of Chicago Theological Schools He is well known throughout the country as the preacher for eleven years on the radio program Lutheran Vespers sponsored by the ELCA Jensen has served as professor at Mekane Yesus Seminary in Addis Ababa Ethiopia Dana College in Blair Nebraska Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque Iowa and Luther Seminary in St Paul Minnesota He is the author of nine books and numerous published articles Envisioning the Word Richard A. Jensen, 2005 In this one volume resource kit Jensen helps preachers use visual images creatively and responsibly How how much when what equipment use of teams relationship to exegesis different varieties of images sources all the essential topics and concerns are addressed here Jensen first discusses how vital if controversial image making has always been in Christian tradition and then demonstrates how preaching with images is both profoundly traditional and necessary to contemporary proclamation His work combines practical advice with religious reflection to enable preachers to help their congregations envision the Word anew The accompanying CD ROM contains not only the full text of the book and helpful study guide but links to the most helpful Websites and Web based sources of images

A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e.g. Christian Jewish Muslim etc. agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

Echoes of Scripture in Luke-Acts Kenneth D. Litwak, 2005-03-07 Litwak challenges previous studies of the use of the Old Testament in Luke Acts as inadequate In contrast to previous studies that consider only quotations or obvious allusions he examines intertextual echoes of the Old Testament at strategic points in Luke Acts as well as quotations and allusions and echoed traditions Thus this study's database is larger Previous studies generally argue that Luke's use of the Scriptures is in the service of christology

This leads to the exclusion of scriptural citations such as those of the temptation Luke 4 1 13 which have different emphases Litwak views ecclesiology as the overall purpose behind Luke s use of the Old Testament but he does not skip or avoid intertextual references that may lie outside an ecclesiological function Whilst other studies contend that Luke uses the Old Testament according to a promise fulfillment proof form prophecy hermeneutic Litwak argues that this fails to account for many of the intertextual references Other studies often subsume all of Luke s use of the Scriptures of Israel under one theme such as the New Exodus but this study does not require that every intertextual echo maps to a specific theme Rather the many intertextual references in strategic texts at the beginning middle and end of Luke Acts and Luke s use of the texts are allowed to dictate the themes to which they relate JSNTS 282 The Narrative Unity of Luke-Acts: The Gospel according to Luke Robert C. Tannehill,1986 Tannehill shows how the narrative contributes to the impact of Luke s literary whole The study further shows that Luke s use of recurring words patterns of repetition and contrast irony pathos and many other features of this narrative contribute to the total fabric of Luke s masterpiece Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1891 Sermons and essays on the apostolical age ... Second edition, revised Arthur Penrhyn STANLEY (Dean of Westminster.),1874 Narrative Reading, Narrative Preaching Joel B. Green,Michael Pasquarello,2003-12 How can preachers best make use of scholarly works as they bring the Word to their congregations This uniquely practical work has the answer Sermons and Essays on the Apostolical Age Arthur Penrhyn Stanley,1874 Naming Grace Mary Catherine Hilkert,1997 It is not a lack of training in the art of rhetoric that accounts for the ineffectiveness of preaching within the Christian churches More significant is the lack of adequate theological foundations While recognizing the great contribution that neo orthodoxy and the dialectical imagination have made Hilkert s major contribution is a scholarly examination of the resources of the sacramental imagination Religion Index One ,2001 Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2005 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Sunday School Times ,1882 dictionary of the bible: dr. william smith ,1872 A Dictionary of the Bible John Mee Fuller,1893
