Precarious Presentpromising Future Ethnicity And Identities In Canadian Literature:

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Laflèche Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breibach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Literary Pluralities Christl Verduyn, 1998-12-16 Literary Pluralities is a collection of essays on the connections between literature and society in Canada focusing on the topics of race ethnicity language and cultures The essays explore a nexus of related issues including the dynamics between race ethnicity class gender and generation Canadian multiculturalism and its meaning within Aboriginal and Quebec communities the politics of language the new field of life writing and international dimensions of the debates Together they present a valuable picture of Canadian and Quebecois cultural and literary criticism at the century's end Contributors include Himani Bannerji George Elliott Clarke Kateri Akiwenzie Damm Hiromi Goto Sneja Gunew Jean Jonaissant Smaro Kamboureli Eva Karpinski Janice Kulyk Keefer Myrna Kostash Lucie Lequin Nadine Ltaif Arun Mukherjee Enoch Padolsky Nourbese Philip Joseph Pivato Armand G Ruffo Tamara Palmer Seiler Drew Hayden Taylor Aritha van Herk Ma r Verthuy and Christl Verduyn This is a co publication of Broadview Press and the Journal of Canadian Studies Transculturating Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena, 2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena's theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies Canada Exposed Pierre Anctil, André Loiselle, Christopher Rolfe, 2009 Selected papers from the sixth biennial conference of the International Council for Canadian Studies held in Ottawa in May 2008 Introd Travelling Concepts Christian Lammert, Katja Sarkowsky, 2009-12-03 Bhikhu Parekh As creative and reflective agents human beings seek meaning in their lives and develop more or less coherent views of the world or cultures in terms of which to organize their personal and collective lives When different groups of individuals within the same society subscribe to different ways of thought they face the crucial question of how to deal with their cultural diversity and sustain a shared common life Premodern societies took a relatively relaxed view of diversity and generally opted for a looser union Modernity brought with it a very different approach to the subject This is reflected in among other things the institution of the modern state especially the liberal democracy which represents one way of constituting it Liberal democracy has exercised a decisive influence on our political and moral imagination for the past three centuries Unlike premodern societies which took the community as their starting point and defined the individual in terms of it it takes the individual as the ultimate and irreducible unit of and thus conceptually and ontologically prior to society The latter is taken to consist of individuals and refers to the totality of its members and their formal and informal relationships Individuals are the sole and equal sources of moral claims and social and political institutions are judged in terms of their ability to safeguard and promote individual interests Transformations of Contemporary Canadian Poetry in English Douglas Barbour, 2005 Jews and Judaism in Canada Michael Brown, Merkaz ha-Yerushalmi le-'inyene tsibur u-medinah, Association for Canadian Jewish Studies, York University (Toronto, Ont.). Centre for Jewish Studies, 1999 English Studies in Canada, 1995 Southern Postcolonialisms Sumanyu Satpathy, 2009 Southern Postcolonialisms is an anthology of critical essays on new literary representations from the Global South that seeks to reinvent/reorient the ideological disciplinary aesthetic and pedagogical thrust of Postcolonial Studies in accordance with the new and shifting politico economic realities transactions between the North and the South as well as within the Global South in an era of globalization Since the emergence of Postcolonial Theory in the 1980s the shape of the world has changed dramatically Old Cold War boundaries have shifted in the wake of the collapse of communism Globalization on an unprecedented scale has dramatically changed the meaning of time and space The rise of the US as a new imperial power has profound implications for the world order In the South new emerging markets have challenged the older division of industrial first world and non industrial third world In most parts of the world the academy is struggling to keep up with these developments One result has been a major transnational turn in the humanities and social sciences Terms like world history and globalization and glocalization

transnationalism now dominate academic agendas worldwide These changing circumstances raise far reaching questions What does the new emerging world order mean for established models of postcolonial theory Is postcolonialism as a field of study being overtaken by models of globalization and transnationalism What implications do the new configurations in the South have for postcolonial theory This volume drawn from a major literary conference at Delhi University provides a set of perspectives on these questions With a majority of contributions by scholars from the South these research articles have a dual focus e they revisit older debates on postcolonial theory while suggesting new perspectives and directions

Precarious Present/promising Future? Danielle Schaub,Janice Kulyk Keefer,Richard E. Sherwin,1996-01 This collection of essays by feminist scholars from Canada and Israel explores the various aspects of Canadian identities and ethnic realities A major source of tension and political conflict today ethnicity and the problematics of identities inspire Canadian writers of all origins to give a true picture of their society they feel the urge to express their difference The essays examine the voices of minority writers and of established writers from the two solitudes whose views with regard to their identities and place in society highlight the specificity of the Canadian context The book throws light on the paramount need to define ones position and identity in contrast to others a need that may deny others the right to their own space Foregrounding the diversity of perspectives characterising Canadas society this volume will prove useful to students and researchers of Canadian Literature Comparative Literature and the Social sciences Open Letter ,2000 Canadian Periodical Index ,1998 Ariel ,2006

Current Contents ,1999 Twenty-first-century Canadian Writers Christian Riegel,2007 Dedicated for nearly thirty years to making literature and its creators more accessible and intriguing to researchers the series presents signed authoritative biographical and critical essays on writers from all eras and genres Rigorously meeting the standards of librarians and instructors signed entries are written by academic experts in the field and include illustrations and extensive bibliographies The Last Best West Yosef Kats,John C. Lehr,1999 Based on revised articles by Yossi Katz and John C Lehr first published in a variety of prestigious academic journals this book analyses the pattern and process of ethnic group settlement in western Canada from 1874 until the 1920s from the perspective of historical geography and in the context of time space and society Through consideration of six major ethnic groups the Mennonites Jews Mormons Ukrainians Doukhobors and Hutterites the book describes how and why these groups created a series of distinctive cultural landscapes across the prairies At the centre of this explanation is an appreciation of the roles played by the immigrants their societies cultures and institutions The ways in which these interacted with the institutions of the host society and with the politics of the Canadian government determined many settlement outcomes It was this interaction that created the complex cultural mosaic of the contemporary prairie landscape in Canada Canadian Studies Linda Marilyn Jones,Ginette Hébert,International Council for Canadian Studies,1997 Varieties of Exile Nicole Côté,Peter Sabor,2002 Mavis Gallant has been described by Michael Ondaatje as one of the great short story writers of our time Since 1950 her short stories and
