Precious Heartbroken Heart Love:

Queen of Prison Ministry Michael Glenn Maness, 2008-06 This WW II novel revolves around the experience of a callow youth destined to join the Fourth Infantry Division in Hurtgen Forest. The narrative traces the bonded ties of six comrades in arms, three of whom are killed and three wounded. Vividly detailed the stressful existence of Combat Infantrymen causes some men to break. What helps those who see it through is their loyalty to one another, called a culture of caring by their Chaplain. In Part I, our innocent recruits are sobered by incidental casualties on the way up, which initiate them into the inconsequence of death. Part II takes them into Hurtgen, a battle fought under continuous icy rain in steep hilled terrain favoring the well entrenched Germans. Casualties often run over 100% of a Company's authorized strength. Attacks are met by unrelenting artillery and mortar fire, machine guns at close range. In a typical situation, our narrator covers a Sergeant who, after taking out a machine gun pinning the Company down, is himself killed by a sniper. A hard-headed West Pointer insists on night action, impossible in the Forest, and after stepping on a mine that takes his legs off, he rolls on another that hits those nearby. General Patton called Hurtgen an epic of stark infantry combat. Part III deals with how badly depleted in numbers and morale the men successfully withstand the Breakthrough, thereby saving Luxembourg, a defense for which Patton gave the Fourth a Unit Citation. In the concluding Part, the narrator is wounded and put on limited assignment. He dislikes the rear echelon life, style guys being obsessed with whores, drinking, stealing, and feasting, but he holds his peace and decides he'll return to the world where reality matters.

Ocean Devotions: from the Hold of Charles H. Spurgeon Master of Mariner Metaphors Michael Glenn Maness, 2008-08-28 What a journey! The 366 mariner metaphors were pulled from the first 60 volumes of the 63 volume New Park Street Pulpit, The Metropolitan Tabernacle Pulpit, a set of 3,561 sermons delivered between 1855-1872. We edited freely. More it seems than any other metaphor, Charles H. Spurgeon used the mariner to illustrate the voyage of the Christian in service to God. As the trade winds bellow our sails and push us towards our Fair Haven, many spiritual challenges wash our decks. One masterpiece after another. HEAVEN Michael G. Maness, 2004-12-01 In heaven we shall know everlasting rest and the full measure of our inheritance. Though no eye has seen what God has prepared for us from Revelation 21:22, we can understand a little of what heaven will feel like. We shall know a new freedom, economy, purity, peace, and so much more. Those will be the simple experiences. The greater experiences will be in everlasting love, most especially in an everlasting marriage and an enduring intimate community. Likewise we shall know a growing and everlasting security within our grand heritage within God's promises and in the work of Christ. Yet the greatest experience of all is also the hardest to understand because it is the farthest removed from our earthly experience. The greatest experience of all will be that for the rest of our everlasting loving lives we will share in the very life and glory of our dynamic and loving God, our loving Father and Abba. The greatest experience in heaven will be the very life and light that we share with God Himself, so very personal and loving to the
