Racial and Cultural Minorities George Eaton Simpson, J. Milton Yinger, 2013-06-29 We need scarcely note that the topic of this book is the stuff of headlines Around the world political economic educational military religious and social relations of every variety have a racial or ethnic component One cannot begin to understand the history or contemporary situation of the United States the Soviet Union China Zimbabwe South Africa Great Britain Lebanon Mexico Canada indeed almost any land without careful attention to the influence of cultural and racial divisions Preparation of this new edition has brought a strong sense of déjà vu with regard both to the persistence of old patterns of discrimination even if in new guises and also to the persistence of limited and constraining explanations. We have also found however rich new empirical studies, new theoretical perspectives and greatly expanded activity and analyses from members of minority groups. Although this edition is an extensive revision with reference both to the data used and the theoretical approaches examined, we have not shifted from our basically analytical perspective. We strongly support efforts to reduce discrimination and prejudice but these can be successful only if we try to understand where we are and what forces are creating the existing situation. We hope to reduce the tendency to use declarations and condemnations of other persons' actions as substitutes for an investigation of their causes and consequences.

Prejudice, Discrimination and Racism against Africans and Siddhis in India Ibrahima Diallo, 2020-04-03. Africa and India have a long history of people-to-people contact as well as cultural, educational and economic exchanges based on mutual interests. They also share imperial and post-imperial experiences. The longstanding relations between the two continents experienced a new twist and a giant leap forward following the Africa-India summit in 2008. However, recently a series of violent incidents against the growing sub-Saharan African communities in India has taken centre stage and made global news headlines. The Indian and international media have portrayed violent and deadly assaults on sub-Saharan Africans in India as prejudice, discrimination and racism. This book provides a collection of studies that examine prejudice, discrimination and racism towards Blackness in India, with a special focus on the lived experiences of sub-Saharan Africans and Siddhis (Afro-Indians). In addition, the topics in this volume cover ideological, cultural and linguistic affinities between Africa and India. The volume is divided into four parts of two chapters each. The first two chapters introduce the focus of the book on sub-Saharan Africans living in India. These are followed by two contributions that examine prejudice, discrimination and racism towards Africans and Siddhis. Two further essays theorise prejudice and racism in India and the ways they are experienced by sub-Saharan Africans and Siddhis. The final two chapters of the book explore ideological, linguistic and cultural affinities between India and Africa. The volume also features contributions by two prominent Africanists. The Foreword is written by Professor Souleymane Bachir Diagne, the Director of the Institute of African Studies at Columbia University. Professor Diagne was awarded the Edouard Glissant Prize for his work in 2011 and the Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement Award in 2018. The Afterword is authored by Professor Aparajita Biswas, the former Director of the Centre for African Studies at the University of Mumbai and the current President of the African Studies Association of India. Professor Biswas is one of India's most respected Africanists with an extensive publication record on African topics and numerous teaching, research and fellowship positions in universities across the world.
