Rape Of Creativity:

The Rape of Creativity Jake Chapman, Dinos Chapman, Modern Art Oxford, 2003      Chicana Creativity and Criticism María Herrera-Sobek, Helena María Viramontes, 1996 Poetry art and criticism by major Chicana writers and artists      The Cosmos and the Creative Imagination Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Patricia Trutty-Coohill, 2016-02-03 The essays in this book respond to Anna Teresa Tymieniecka's recent call to explore the relationship between the evolution of the universe and the process of self-individuation in the ontopoietic unfolding of life. The essays approach the sensory manifold in a number of ways. They show that theories of modern science become a strategy for the phenomenological study of works of art and vice versa. Works of phenomenology and of the arts examine how individual spontaneity connects with the design of the logos of the whole and of the particulars while the designs rest not on some human concept but on life itself. Life's pliable matrices allow us to consider the expansiveness of contemporary science and to help create a contemporary phenomenological sense of cosmos.

Violent States and Creative States (Volume 1) John Adlam, Tilman Kluttig, Bandy Lee, 2018-05-03 This is a provocative collection exploring the different types of violence and how they relate to one another, examined through the integration of several disciplines including forensic psychotherapy, psychiatry, sociology, psychosocial studies, and political science. By examining the violent states of mind behind specific forms of violence and the social and societal contexts in which an individual act of human violence takes place, the contributors reveal the dynamic forces and reasoning behind specific forms of violence, including structural violence, and conceptualise the societal structures themselves as violent states. Other research often stops short at examining the causes and risk factors for violence without considering the opposite states that may not only mitigate but allow for a different unfolding of individual and societal evolution. As a potential antidote to violence, the authors prescribe an understanding of these creative states with their psychological origins and their importance in human behaviour and meaning seeking. Making a call to move beyond merely mitigating violence to the opposite direction of fostering creative potential, this book is foundational in its capacity to cultivate social consciousness and effect positive change in areas of governance, policy making, and collective responsibility. Volume 1: Structural Violence and Creative Structures covers structural and symbolic violence with violent states and state violence and with creative responses and creative states at the local and global levels.

Creative Child Advocacy Ved Kumari, Susan L. Brooks, 2004-08-30 Combining global examples of cases with practical solutions, this book will be of interest to anyone involved in child advocacy, from judges to probation officers. childRIGHT. The greatest achievement of this book may be its inspiration to those also willing to swim against the tide as child advocates. The authors are open about the practicalities of their work and the tensions they have experienced; their personal accounts contain gripping narratives of real attempts to improve situations for children. Adoption, international child custody, abduction, juvenile delinquency, child abuse and neglect, and date violence among teenagers. The innovative approaches proposed by the contributors to deal with these concerns include creating a child advocacy centre within a private firm litigation strategies and developing a handbook that explains courts processes to abused children Brandfaces, 2006 Jake & Dinos Chapman Jake Chapman, Dinos Chapman, Suzanne Cotter, 2003 Published to accompany the exhibition held at Modern Art Oxford 12 April 8 June 2003
