Peaceful Jihad Negotiating Identity And Modernity In Muslim Java:

A Peaceful Jihad R. Lukens-Bull, 2005-05-12 Based on extensive ethnographic research this book examines how the Islamic community in Java Indonesia is actively negotiating both modernity and tradition in the contexts of nation building globalisation and a supposed clash of civilizations The pesantren community so called because it is centered around an educational institution called the pesantren uses education as a central arena for dealing with globalization and the construction and maintenance of an Indonesian Islamic identity However the community's efforts to wrestle with these issues extend beyond education into the public sphere in general and specifically in the area of leadership and politics The case material is used to understand Muslim strategies and responses to civilizational contact and conflict Scholars educated readers and advanced undergraduates interested in Islam religious education the construction of religious identity in the context of national politics and globalization will find this work useful Zwischen Pancasila und Fundamentalismus Volker Küster, 2017-03-01 Indonesien ist heute das größte muslimische Land der Erde doch das hindu buddhistische Erbe ist nicht nur durch die imposanten Tempelruinen von Prambanan und Borobudur sondern auch in der gelebten Religion auf Bali noch stets präsent Daneben haben sich die primalen Religionen verschiedener Ethnien im Inselreich erhalten Volker Küster untersucht wie christliche Künstler in Bali Java und Papua diese Einflüsse aufnehmen Nach der Unabhängigkeit 1949 sollten die fünf Prinzipien der Pancasila Verfassung ein friedliches Zusammenleben in der kulturell religiösen Vielfalt des Inselreiches regeln der Glaube an einen Gott war eines davon Die Auswirkungen des wachsenden Fundamentalismus in der islamischen Welt aber auch im Hinduismus streben zunehmend den Frieden und lassen auch die Bildwelten nicht unberührt Alternative Islamic Discourses and Religious Authority Dr Carool Kersten, Dr Susanne Olsson, 2014-01-28 Like anywhere else the present day Islamic world too is grappling with modernity and postmodernity secularisation and globalisation Muslims are raising questions about religious representations and authority This has given rise to the emergence of alternative Islamic discourses which challenge binary oppositions and dichotomies of orthodoxy and heterodoxy continuity and change state and civil society It also leads to a dispersal of authority a collapse of existing hierarchical structures and gender roles This book further argues that the centre of gravity of many of these alternative Islamic discourses is shifting from the Arabic speaking heartland towards the geographical peripheries of the Muslim world and expatriate Muslims in North America and Europe At the same time in view of recent seismic shifts in the political constellation of the Middle East the trends discussed in this book hold important clues for the possible direction of future developments in that volatile part of the Muslim world

Making Modern Muslims Robert W. Hefner, 2008-10-01 When students from a Muslim boarding school were convicted for the 2002 terrorist bombings in Bali Islamic schools in Southeast Asia became the focus of intense international scrutiny Some analysts have warned that these schools are being turned into platforms for violent jihadism Making Modern Muslims is the first book to look comparatively at Islamic education and politics in Southeast Asia Based on a two year research project by leading scholars of Southeast Asian Islam the book examines Islamic schooling in Malaysia Indonesia Thailand Cambodia and the southern Philippines The studies demonstrate that the great majority of schools have nothing to do with violence but are undergoing changes that have far reaching implications for democracy gender relations pluralism and citizenship Making Modern Muslims offers an important reassessment of Muslim culture and politics in Southeast Asia and provides insights into the changing nature of state society relations from the late colonial period to the present It allows us to better appreciate the astonishing dynamism of Islamization in Southeast Asia and the struggle for Muslim hearts and minds taking place today Timely and readable this volume will be of great interest to teachers and specialists of Islam and Southeast Asia as well as the general reader seeking to understand the great transformations at work in the Muslim world Contributors Esmail A Abdula Bj rn Atle Blengslie Joseph Chinyong Liow Robert W Hefner Richard G Kraince Thomas M McKenna Design and the Vernacular Paul Memmott, John Ting, Tim O'Rourke, Marcel Vellinga, 2023-11-16 Design and the Vernacular explores the intersection between vernacular architecture local cultures and modernity and globalization focussing on the vast and diverse global region of Australasia and Oceania The relevance and role of vernacular architecture in contemporary urban planning and architectural design are examined in the context of rapid political economic technological social and environmental changes including globalization exchanges of people finance material culture and digital technologies Sixteen chapters by architects designers and theorists including Indigenous writers explore key questions about the agency of vernacular architecture in shaping contemporary building and design practice These questions include How have Indigenous building traditions shaped modern building practices What can the study of vernacular architecture contribute to debates about sustainable development And how has vernacular architecture been used to argue for postcolonial modernisation and nation building and what has been the effect on heritage and conservation Such questions provide valuable case studies and lessons for architecture in other global regions and challenge assumptions about vernacular architecture being anachronistic and static instead demonstrating how it can shape contemporary architecture nation building and cultural identities
