Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution Isabel Crowhurst, Susan Dewey, Chimaraoke Izugbara, 2021-03-30 Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is about sex work and prostitution third sector organizations TSOs non governmental and non profit organizations that provide support services to and advocate for the well being of people operating in the sex industries With a focus on three vast and extremely diverse regions Africa the Americas and Europe this book provides a unique vantage point that shows how interlinked these organizations histories and configurations are TSOs are fascinating research sites because they operate as zones of contestation which translate their understandings of sex work and prostitution into different support practices and advocacy initiatives This book reveals that these organizations are not external to normative power but participate in it and are subject to it conditioning how they can exist who they can reach out to where and what they can achieve Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is a resource for scholars policymakers and activists involved in research on and work with third sector organizations in the fields of sex work and prostitution gender and sexuality and human rights among others Sex Tourism in Bahia Erica Lorraine Williams, 2013-10-30 For nearly a decade Brazil has surpassed Thailand as the world s premier sex tourism destination As the first full length ethnography of sex tourism in Brazil this pioneering study treats sex tourism as a complex and multidimensional phenomenon that involves a range of activities and erotic connections from sex work to romantic transnational relationships Erica Lorraine Williams explores sex tourism in the Brazilian state of Bahia from the perspectives of foreign tourists tourism industry workers sex workers who engage in liaisons with foreigners and Afro Brazilian men and women who contend with foreigners stereotypical assumptions about their licentiousness She shows how the Bahian state strategically exploits the touristic desire for exotic culture by appropriating an eroticized blackness and commodifying the Afro Brazilian culture in order to sell Bahia to foreign travelers Encyclopedia of Prostitution and Sex Work Melissa Hope Ditmore, 2006-08-30 The cliché is that prostitution is the oldest profession Isn't it time that the subject received a full reference treatment This major 2 volume set is the first to treat in an inclusive reference what is usually considered a societal failing and the underside of sexuality and economic survival The A to Z encyclopedia offers wide ranging entries related to prostitution and the sex industry past and present both worldwide mostly in the West and in the United States The topic of prostitution has high interest appeal across disciplines and the narrative entries illuminate literature art law medicine economics politics women's studies religion sociology sexuality film popular culture public health nonfiction American and world history business gender media education crime race technology performing arts family social work social mores pornography the military tourism child labor and more It is targeted to the general reader who will gain useful insight into the human race through time via its sex industry and prostitution An introduction overviews the scope of prostitution from the earliest historical records including the Bible User friendly lists that are alphabetically and topically arranged help the reader find entries of interest as does the comprehensive index A chronology proffers significant dates related to the topic Each entry is signed and has suggestions for further reading Sample entries Abolition Actresses Augustine Saint Barr Candy Bible Camp Followers Chamberlain Kahn Bill of 1918 Child Prostitution Clothing Contagious Diseases Acts of 1864 1866 and 1869 Crime Debby Doesn't Do It for Free Dickens Charles Devadasi Entrapment Fallen Woman Trope Feminism Films Cult Five Points Free Love Geisha Globalization Guidebooks Hip Hop HIV AIDS and the Prostitution Rights Movement Human Rights Incest Internet Jack the Ripper Kama Sutra League of Nations Lulu Male Stripping Mann Act Mayhew Henry Memoirs Migration and Mobility Nazi Germany Poetry Purity Movements R Religion Salvation Army Scapegoating Slang Storyville Temporary Marriage Unions Venice Window Prostitution Body/Sex/Work Carol Wolkowitz, Rachel Lara Cohen, Teela Sanders, 2013-02-27 Body Sex Work focuses on the intimate embodied and sexualised labour that occurs within body work and sex work Bringing together an internationally renowned group of academics it explores empirically and theoretically labour processes workplace relations regulation and resistance in some of the many work sites that make up the body work and sex work sectors The book makes a key contribution to research recognising the embodiment of labour and the body reframing the key questions in critical studies of work and employment Key Benefits The first book that draws together the sub disciplines of body work and sex work Written by leading international experts Contains cutting edge empirical research on contemporary topics Body Sex Work is an ideal companion for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students of labour and organisation studies body studies gender and sexuality It will also appeal to researchers and lecturers in these fields Religious Responses to Sex Work and Sex Trafficking Lauren McGrow, 2022-08-01 This book examines the history theological beliefs and current contextual practices of faith based NGOs who work in the area of human trafficking that involves the sex industry There are hundreds of religious organizations around the globe who minister with human trafficking survivors and sex workers but what is really happening on the ground and how do theological beliefs support a faith based response Many of these groups represent their work as a cosmic battle against evil forces yet important structural critiques are ignored in the urgency to rescue women and children Using perspectives from both NGO staff and sex workers an interdisciplinary panel of contributors examine specific organizations highlight marginalized voices and analyze undergirding methodologies In doing so the authors provide clear critiques and establish best practice guidelines for faith based NGOs and future religious leaders affirming an intersection of justice based upon critical reflection and careful action This book addresses with nuance an important topic that is often over simplified It will therefore be of great interest to scholars studying the interaction of religion to sex work and human trafficking as well as academics of religious studies and theology more generally

Sex and the Contract Vincenzo Zeno-Zencovich, 2011-03-21 Sexual services and goods are regularly and legally offered in all Western countries Although they are shunned through the age old maxims of in pari causa turpitudinis and nemo auditur there is a growing tendency both in legislation and case law to recognize the effects of these contracts The book analyzes the policies underlying the regulation of sexual services and goods and indicates some important conflicts self determination against human dignity refusal of commodification of women's bodies against protection of sex workers regulatory approach against prohibition The analysis touches sensitive issues such as zoning sexual tourism private sexual practices consumers of sex enhancers The volume takes a legal realistic approach trying to see the private law aspects of what was considered only as infamous commerce

Sex, Power & Taboo Dorothy E. Roberts, 2009 In the Caribbean sexuality has never been a topic for public discussion Previously relegated to theatrical innuendo musical lyrics and other popular forms of cultural expression the HIV and AIDS pandemic have now thrown this taboo subject centrestage The discourse on gender and sexuality is however still being shaped and this book sets the platform for that discussion Proceeding from a premise that gender influences sexuality and sexual behaviour Sex Power and Taboo provides an interdisciplinary approach to the exploration of how gender affects HIV risk and prevention The paradigm of HIV and AIDS research is shifted by illuminating the influence of gender ideologies norms and power relationships on sexuality and the impact of gender to HIV risk and prevention within and outside of the Caribbean The contributors are Caribbean and international and discuss gender and sexuality for the academic for those in the public health service as well as social policymakers Sex Power and Taboo contributes to the research based interventions to aid the prevention of HIV and AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases and will assist in the design implementation and evaluation of programmes addressing the AIDS epidemic

Constructing Vernacular Culture in the Trans-Caribbean Holger Henke, Karl-Heinz Magister, 2008 Constructing Vernacular Culture in the Trans Caribbean traces the contradictory cultural trajectories

constructed and re produced in the fluid diasporic spaces we call the Trans Caribbean Particular emphasis is placed on such cultural expressions that reflect or derive from the cultural vernacular and popular culture as it exists in these spaces Its multidisciplinary approach and focus on different language areas in the Trans Caribbean are of particular interest to scholars in cultural studies migration literary theory and cultural criticism

Mongers in Heaven Jacobo Schifter, 2007 Mongers in Heaven is an exploration of Monger Culture Mongers as defined by the author in relation to sexual tourism to Costa Rica are tourists and expatriates who have developed a unique culture of simulation lying marriages gender games and sexual liberation Schifter Sikora analyzes the relatively new phenomenon of American senior citizens mass traveling to Central America in search of sex and love from prostitutes The social and economic impact of their travel as well as the increase in new HIV infections in the U S and the Central American countries is at the core of Schifter Sikora s analysis The author also makes a unique psychological analysis that includes both the sex worker and her American client and their mutual aspirations and disappointments The study features unique quantitative data on this population of sex workers and clients and the group s reasons for and expectations of sexual tourism Also under analysis by Schifter Sikora is Jean Baudrillard s theory of simulation and simulacra here in relation to the disappearance of the real in sexual tourism American sex tourists are creating a sexual culture where truth is no longer relevant or desired Costa Rican sex workers for their part hope for the traditional real that the Americans are escaping from Both groups are turning a former Banana Republic into a sexualized fantasy land where women who charge are lovers and prospective wives and those who do not are seen as the real prostitutes
