Towards a Politics of the Rainbow Jill C. Humphrey,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 The trade union movement in twentieth century Britain has been a cornerstone for society's marginalized members women disabled people lesbians and gay men and people from black and ethnic minority communities As these groups of workers self organized to reform their unions they built a bridge between the old social movement based around class position and labour identity and the new social movements based around civil rights and status stratifications This book presents a detailed look at self organization within public sector unions through the emergence of four self organized groups within NALGO and later UNISON Drawing upon unique insider knowledge of the alliances and antipathies between the self organized groups and the host union the book also provides fascinating revelations of the tensions between self organized groups themselves This study will be essential reading for students of political sociology and industrial relations Sexing the City Davina Cooper,1994 Theories of Urban Politics Jonathan S Davies,Dr David L Imbroscio,2009 Fully expanded and updated the Second Edition of the successful Theories of Urban Politics provides the reader with a comprehensive introduction to and evaluation of the theoretical approaches to urban governance Restructured into four new parts power governance citizens challenges the Second Edition reflects developments in the field over the last decade with newly commissioned chapters updating and adding to the theoretical material included in the First Edition Cities of Pleasure Alan Collins,2013-09-13 This book contains a collection of cutting edge chapters that explore various connections between urban living sexuality and sexual desire around the world The key themes featured address a number of topical issues including the controversies and debates raging around the evolution defining patterns and appropriate regulation of commercial sex zones and markets in

Beger, 2000 The Lesbian and Gay Christian Movement Sean Gill, 1998 Founded in 1976 the Lesbian and Gay Christian Movement LGCM has become the largest and most prominent group in Britain fighting to change the Christian Church s attitudes towards homosexuality This book looks at LGCM s position EU. Geschlecht. Staat Eva Kreisky, Sabine Lang, Birgit Sauer, 2001 Argument-Sonderbände , 1974 Sexuality, Morals and Justice Nicholas Bamforth, 1997 Law reform is a central goal of lesbian and gay campaigning groups In recent years there have been attempts to secure equal ages of consent for heterosexual and same sex sexual acts to create anti discrimination laws protecting lesbians and gays to allow lesbians and gays to serve in the military and to permit same sex marriages Reformers usually try to justify such measures by invoking equality respect for privacy or related arguments This book examines the justifications for law reform which have been put forward to date It suggests that they are not in fact as strong as campaigners have assumed and that a stronger case for legal reforms can be made if the idea of empowerment is used While advancing a new argument for protecting lesbian and gay rights through law the book is skeptical about how far law is useful in eradicating discriminatory social practices Studies in Law, Politics and Society William Nelson Cromwell Professor of Jurisprudence & Political Science Austin Sarat, Austin Sarat, Susan S. Silbey, 1996-02 This volume is part of an annually published series of interdisciplinary research on law with a critical focus Research is invited on a wide range of law related subjects including law and inequality feminist jurisprudence racial oppression and law and legal institutions and communities Undressing Lesbian Sex Elaine Creith, 1996 A provocative lively and informative book containing a down to earth review of lesbian sex which explores what lesbians do how they do it and how often Contains informed discussion on many issues affecting lesbian sexual health and well being including the latest thinking on HIV AIDS the SM debate social lubricants the lesbian bed death theory monogamy and non monogamy the impact of long term illness on sexual relationships abuse and safer sex information Accessible entertaining and original Undressing Lesbian Sex is the first British book on the subject and it is based on extensive empirical research in this country The results of the UK s first ever lesbian sex survey which was widely distributed throughout the country are analysed and explored here in the broader context of lesbian life in the nineties Lesbians in Print Margaret Gillon, 1995 An Introduction to Law and Social Theory Reza Banakar, Max Travers, 2002-08-20 Although most law schools recognise the value of introducing students to a broader sociological perspective on law this usually falls short of a full engagement with sociology as an academic discipline This book introduces a wide range of sociological traditions and how they can be used in investigating law and legal institutions The book is organised into six sections each with an introduction by the editors on classical sociology of law structural functionalism and systems theory critical approaches interpretive approaches postmodernism and pluralism and globalisation and a conclusion that discusses the relationship between law and sociology Each of the chapters is written by a specialist who reviews the literature and discusses how the approach can be used in researching different topics
