Sexing The Mind Nineteenth Century Fictions Of Hysteria:

Sexing the Mind Evelyne Ender, 1995 Sexing the Mind looks at scenes of hysteria in works by George Sand Gustave Flaubert George Eliot and Henry James as well as in the writings of Sigmund Freud showing how these texts represent distinctive attempts to break loose from erotic political and epistemological models of Victorian masculinity and femininity Through her approach which is both closely textual reading against the grain in psychoanalytic and feminist fashion and historical retracing in medical and literary texts the manifestations of hysteria Ender uncovers a series of discursive structures that engender the modern subject Her book probes the interplay of writing subjectivity and sexual identity and succeeds in showing how the nineteenth century view of hysteria from Sand to the early Freud displays the competing claims of male female consciousness

The Hysterics' Revenge Rachel Mesch, 2006 Brings into relief a critical relationship between the female mind and body that is essential to understanding the discursive position of the turn of the century woman writer This book includes novels that confront this mind body problem through a wide variety of styles and genres that challenge conventional fin de siècle notions of femininity

Hysterical Men Mark S MICALE, Mark S Micale, 2009-06-30 Over the course of several centuries Western masculinity has successfully established itself as the voice of reason knowledge and sanity the basis for patriarchal rule in the face of massive testimony to the contrary This book boldly challenges this triumphant vision of the stable and secure male by examining the central role played by modern science and medicine in constructing and sustaining it

Problem Novels Anna Maria Jones, 2007 In Problem Novels Anna Maria Jones argues that far from participating invisibly in disciplinary regimes many Victorian novels articulate sophisticated theories about the role of the novel in the formation of the self In fact it is rare to find a Victorian novel in which questions about the danger or utility of novel reading are not embedded within the narrative In other words one of the stories that the Victorian novel tells over and over again is the story of what novels do to readers This story occurs in moments that call attention to the reader's engagement with the text In chapters on Wilkie Collins Anthony Trollope and George Meredith Jones examines problem novels that is novels that both narrate and invite problematic reading as part of their theorizing of cultural production Problem Novels demonstrates that these works posit a culturally embedded sensationally susceptible reader and at the same time present a methodology for critical engagement with cultural texts Thus the novels theorize paradoxically a reader who is both unconsciously interpellated and critically empowered And Jones argues it is this paradoxical construction of the unconscious critical subject that re-emerges in the theoretical paradigms of Victorian cultural studies scholarship Indeed as Problem Novels shows Victorianists' attachments to critical detective work closely resemble the sensational attachments that we assume shaped Victorian novel readers

BOOK JACKET

Gendered Bodies and New Technologies Amanda du Preez, 2009-10-02 In this era of ubiquitous information flow heightened mobility and limitless consumer convenience human interaction with new technologies has become increasingly seamless In the process the human body is effectively and steadily reduced to just another interface or a second life so to speak What is easily forgotten during this translucent transaction is that being human also necessarily implies being embodied In other words to constitute a body in its non negotiable physicality is still what it entails to be human amongst other things To live daily in and through the complicated and dynamic intersection between mind and body psychology and physiology also known as embodiment is what makes us human

The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction J. King, 2005-06-01 The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction explores the representation of Victorian womanhood in the work of some of today's most important British and North American novelists including A S Byatt Sarah Waters Margaret Atwood Angela Carter and Toni Morrison By analysing these novels in the context of the scientific religious and literary discourses that shaped Victorian ideas about gender it contributes to an important inter disciplinary debate For while showing the power of these discourses to shape women's roles the novels also suggest how individual women might challenge that power through their own lives

The Sex Effect Ross Benes, 2017-04-04 A gripping exploration of the relationship between sex and our society with a foreword by bestselling author A J Jacobs Why do political leaders become entangled in so many sex scandals How did the U S military inadvertently help make San Francisco a mecca of gay culture And what was the original purpose of vibrators Find out the answers to all these questions and more as journalist Ross Benes delves into the complicated relationship between everyday human life including religion politics and technology and our sexuality Drawing on history psychology sociology and more The Sex Effect combines innovative research and analysis with captivating anecdotes to reveal just how much sex shapes our society and what it means for us as humans as we continue to struggle with the wide ranging effects our sexuality has on the world around us

The Politics of Aesthetics Marc Redfield, 2003 This book suggests that modern cultural and critical institutions have persistently associated questions of aesthetics and politics with literature theory technics and Romanticism Its first section examines aesthetic nationalism and the figure of the body focusing on writings by Benedict Anderson J G Fichte and Matthew Arnold and arguing that uneasy acts of aestheticization of media technology and abjection of the maternal body undergird the production of the national body as imagined community Subsequent chapters on Paul de Man Friedrich Schlegel and Percy Shelley explore the career of the gendered body in the aesthetic tradition and the relationship among aesthetics technics politics and figurative language The author accounts for the hysteria that has characterized media representations of theory explains why and how Romanticism has remained a locus of extravagant political hopes and anxieties and in a sequence of close readings uncovers the anaesthetic condition of possibility of the politics of aesthetics

Nineteenth-century Literature, 1998 Contains articles which focus on a broad spectrum of significant figures in fiction philosophy and criticism such as Austen Carlyle Dickens Thackeray the Brontes Tennyson

Browning Arnold Emerson Hawthorne Thoreau Whitman Twain and Henry James Drapery Gen Doy, 2001-12-21 Gen Doy investigates the hitherto neglected meanings of drapery and the draped body in visual culture The baroque and the classical are her subjects as are Freud's Gravidia Clerambault's writings and photographs of draped figures the fetishistic play between veiling and revealing and the meanings of drapery in recent art from Christo's wrapped Reichstag to the impact of the modern women's movement on fine art practice Yet she also finds and focuses on the draped body now in places like Algeria and Kosovo where drapery's connotations are no longer those of purity and civilized elegance but of barbarism poverty and savage death     Nineteenth-century French Studies, 2001     Sprechende Körper, Poetik der Ansteckung Elisabeth Strowick, 2009 Die Untersuchung arbeitet die methodische Relevanz des Performativen für eine kulturwissenschaftliche Literaturwissenschaft heraus Ausgehend von der Akzentuierung des performativen Aktes als Akt des sprechenden Körpers Felman entwickelt sie Überlegungen zum Akt des Lesens und formuliert Aspekte einer Poetik der Ansteckung für die Literatur der Moderne Der performative turn der sich in den Kulturwissenschaften durchgesetzt hat hat die Literaturwissenschaften in methodischer Hinsicht bisher wenig affiziert Ausgehend von Shoshana Felmans Austin Lektüre wird in diesem Band der performative Akt als Akt des sprechenden Körpers akzentuiert wobei der Körper nicht als ein Mittel sprachlicher Überzeugung sondern als Überschuss des Überzeugungsaktes über die Aussage verstanden wird     Nineteenth-century Literature Criticism Laurie Lanzen Harris, 1981 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative writers who lived between 1800 and 1900 from the first published critical appraisals to current evaluations     George Eliot - George Henry Lewes Studies, 1997     Victorian Sensation Fiction Andrew Radford, 2008-12-15 A concise and lucid overview of the key criticism from early reviews to twenty first commentaries surrounding the popular genre of Victorian sensation fiction     Writing Irishness in Nineteenth-century British Culture Neil McCaw, 2004 The representation of the Irish in English canonical fictions was to have been the subject of this monograph The editor realised the enormity of the task and limited the present volume to an overview of the Irish authors and Ireland in English literature     Bodies that Splatter Christine Rose, 2004     Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company, 2005 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900 1960
