Sexism Racism And Oppression:

Sexism, Racism, and Oppression Arthur Brittan, Mary Maynard, 1984-01-01 Feminist Theory Bell Hooks, 2000 A new edition of a classic work a sweeping examination of the core issues of sexual politics by one of feminism's most important and critical voices Decolonizing Existentialism and Phenomenology Jina Fast, 2023-11-15 Decolonizing Existentialism and Phenomenology analyzes the history of decolonial existentialist and phenomenological theory in the work of figures such as Simone de Beauvoir Richard Wright Franz Fanon Lewis Gordon Audre Lorde Sylvia Wynter and Jamaica Kincaid in order to reimagine and rewrite the philosophical canon Phenomenology and existentialism study the structures of consciousness as experienced from the perspective of the subject yet their methods have been markedly tied to the subjective lived experiences and perspectives of White Europeans and Americans By centering the experiences of peoples of the African diaspora gender marginalized people and queer peoples Africana existentialist and phenomenologist philosophers in the twentieth and twenty first centuries have been able to generate new frameworks for understanding structures of meaning and consciousness within oppressive colonial orders thus challenging histories of existentialism and phenomenology that bracket social markers of identity and experiences of social identity This text represents a study of the philosophies of scholars that seek to decolonize hegemonic discourses and structures that impede the development of the selves and projects of colonized peoples The ^AWrong of Injustice Mari Mikkola, 2016-07-01 The book offers a feminist examination of contemporary social injustices It argues for a paradigm shift away from feminist philosophy organized around the gender concept woman and towards humanist feminism The book further develops a notion of dehumanization that explicates social injustices elucidates humanist feminism and improves non feminist analyses of injustice Oppression, Privilege, and Resistance Lisa Maree Heldke, Peg O'Connor, 2004 This anthology is a philosophical reader on racism sexism heterosexism and classism with a distinct theoretical framework that provides coherence and cohesion to the readings The book is framed by a model of racism sexism heterosexism and classism that understands these phenomena as interlocking systems of oppression Resting upon this oppression model are two sets of theories one concerned with the phenomenon of privilege the companion of oppression and the other with resistance the response to oppression Das Argument, 1987 The Physiology of Sexist and Racist Oppression Shannon Sullivan, 2015 While gender and race often are considered socially constructed this book argues that they are physiologically constituted through the biopsychosocial effects of sexism and racism Examining a complex tangle of affects emotions knowledge and privilege the book develops an understanding of the human body whose unconscious habits are biological On this account affect and emotion are thoroughly somatic not something mental or extra biological layered on top of the body They also are interpersonal social and can be transactionally transmitted between people Postfeminism and Organization Patricia Lewis, Yvonne Benschop, Ruth Simpson, 2017-11-10 This edited book inserts postfeminism PF as a critical concept into understandings of work and organization While the notion of PF has been extensively investigated in cultural and media studies it has yet to emerge within organization studies remaining marginal to understandings of work based experiences and subjectivities Understanding PF as a discursive cultural context not only draws on an established epistemological orientation to organizations as discursively constructed and reproduced but allows us to highlight how PF may underpin and be underpinned by other discursive regimes This book as the first in the field draws on key international authors to explore the contextual backdrop of PF and its links with neo liberalism transnational feminism and other hegemonic discourses the different ways in which this backdrop has infiltrated organizational values and practice through the primacy attached to choice merit and individual agency as well as through the widespread perception that gender disadvantage has been solved and the implications for organizational subjectivity and for how inequality is experienced and perceived This book introduces postfeminism as a critical concept with contemporary importance for the study of organizations arguing for its explanatory potential when Exploring women s and men s experience of managing and organizing Investigating the gendered aspects of organizational life Analysing the contemporary validation of the feminine and the associated feminization of management leadership and organizations Tracing the emergence of new femininities and masculinities within organizational contexts The book is ideal reading for researchers working in the area of Gender and Organization Studies but is also of interest to researchers in the areas of Cultural Studies Media Studies Women s Studies and Sociology

Remembering Esperanza Mark Lewis Taylor,2006-09-01 Remembering Esperanza has been acclaimed as this generation s most important synthesis of critical theory and Christian theology Taylor offers North American models of a new theology that serves an informed critical transformative praxis of resistance to sexism classism racism Taylor s work forges a vital link to an engaged Christianity and the Christ who is its source

Homosexual Desire Guy Hocquenghem,1993 This essay focuses on the possibility of social and personal transformation which was opened up by the gay liberation movement in France which the author terms a revolution of desire

A Broken Silence Lena Myers,2002-02-28 This book addresses the interlocking systems of race and gender in institutions of higher education in America The study is based on empirical data from African American women of various disciplines in faculty and administrative positions at traditionally white colleges and universities It focuses primarily on narratives of the women in terms of how they are affected by racism as well as sexism as they perform their duties in their academic environments The findings suggest that a common thread exists relative to the experiences of the women The book challenges and dispels the myth that Black progress has led to equality for African American women in the academy The results of this study make it even more critical that the voices of African American women be heard and their experiences in the academy be expressed This may be one way to inform academic and lay readers that racism and sexism are not dead

The Dark Side of the Left Richard J. Ellis,1998 Political correctness idealizing the oppressed and an affinity for authoritarian and charismatic leaders are all parts of what Ellis calls the dark side of the left

brings together a rich and varied selection of classic and contemporary works from the humanities as well as the social sciences distinguishing this introductory text reader from more sociologically oriented texts Professor Ruth integrates these diverse materials including her own substantial commentaries according to three powerful themes women's images women's realities and women's choices Publisher's description Group Rights David Ingram, 2000 Ingram philosophy Loyola University brings a variety of current social dilemmas together in a mutually illuminating way He examines the concept of legal equality in a multiracial society by considering issues such as self governance for Native Americans the rights of immigrants affirmative action and racial redistricting tie also tackles the problem of social injustice in a global setting by assessing the negative impact of free trade policies on the rights of groups to self determination and cultural integrity

Equal Opportunities and Social Policy Barbara Bagilhole, 1997 This book explores the highly contested area of equal opportunities analysing the three key areas of gender race and disability as both separate and integral to the concept of equal opportunities A University in Search of Civility Vincent Gaston Dethier, 1984 Diversity, Oppression, and Social Functioning George A. Appleby, Edgar Colon, Julia Hamilton, 2007 The diverse populations presented in the text are described within an ecological strengths perspective Race, Social Identity, and Human Dignity Cheryl Hughes, 2002
