Sexual Life Of Catherine M:

The Sexual Life of Catherine M. Catherine Millet, 2003 Written in spare matter of fact prose this work is the sexual diary of a well known Parisian intellectual who likes to spend her nights in the singles clubs of Paris and the Bois de Boulogne where she has sex with a succession of anonymous men Jealousy Catherine Millet, 2011-02-08 A haunting story of fragile female identity sexually gained violently lost by the New York Times bestselling author of The Sexual Life of Catherine M The New York Times Book Review Catherine Millet's erotic memoir The Sexual Life of Catherine M was a landmark book a portrait of a sexual life lived without boundaries and without a safety net Described as eloquent graphic and sometimes even poignant by Newsweek and as perhaps one of the most erotic books ever written by Playboy it drew international attention for its audacity and the apparently superhuman sangfroid required of Millet and her partner Jacques Henric with whom she had an extremely public and active open relationship Now Millet's follow up answers the first book s implicit question How did you avoid jealousy I had love at home Millet explains I sought only pleasure in the world outside But one day she discovered a letter in their apartment that made it clear that Jacques was seriously involved with someone else Jealousy details the crisis provoked by this discovery and Millet's attempts to reconcile her need for freedom and sexual liberation with the very real heartache caused by Jacques s infidelity Jealousy delves into the world of emotion as evocatively as The Sexual Life of Catherine M delves into the realm of the senses Here is the paradoxical confession of a libertine who discovers that love in any of its forms can have a dark side An honest brutal piece of confession and self analysis The Guardian Is the Rectum a Grave? Leo Bersani, 2009-12-15 Over the course of a distinguished career critic Leo Bersani has tackled a range of issues in his writing and this collection gathers together some of his finest work Beginning with one of the foundations of queer theory his famous meditation on how sex leads to a shattering of the self Is the Rectum a Grave this volume charts the inspired connections Bersani has made between sexuality psychoanalysis and aesthetics Over the course of these essays Bersani grapples with thinkers ranging from Plato to Descartes to Georg Simmel Foucault and Freud recur as key figures and although Foucault rejected psychoanalysis Bersani contends that by considering his ideas alongside Freud s one gains a clearer understanding of human identity and how we relate to one another For Bersani art represents a crucial guide for conceiving new ways of connecting to the world and so in many of these essays he stresses the importance of aesthetics analyzing works by Genet Caravaggio Proust Almod var and Godard Documenting over two decades in the life of one of the best minds working in the humanities today Is the Rectum a Grave and Other Essays is a unique opportunity to explore the fruitful career of a formidable intellect The Digested Read John Crace, 2005-12 Literary ombudsman John Crace never met an important book he didn t like to deconstruct From Salman Rushdie to John Grisham Crace retells the big books in just 500 bitingly satirical words pointing his pen at the clunky plots stylistic tics and pretensions of Big Ideas as he turns publishers golden dream books into dross Das sexuelle Leben der Catherine M. Catherine Millet, 2006 Im Alter

Catherine Millet, 2004

Translating Transgressive Texts Pauline Henry-Tierney, 2023-12-22 Through close examination of references to gender identity female sexuality and corporeality this book is the first of its kind to shed light on the complexities of translating the recent transgressive turn in contemporary women's writing in French Via four case studies namely the translations into English of Nelly Arcan's Putain 2001 Catherine Millet's La Vie sexuelle de Catherine M 2001 Nancy Huston's Infrarouge 2010 and Nina Bouraoui's Gar on mangu 2000 this book explores how transgressive topoi such as prostitution anorexia matrophobia rape female desire and transgenderism are translated. The book considers how auto fictional female selves portrayed are dis placed by translation at both a textual and paratextual level Combining feminist phenomenological perspectives on female lived experience with feminist translation theory this interdisciplinary study offers an insight into how the experiential is brought into language how it journeys via language into new cultural contexts via translation and creates a dialogical space in which the subjectivities of those involved author narrator protagonist translator become open to the porosity of encounters with alterity The volume will appeal to scholars in translation studies French Studies and gender and sexuality studies particularly those interested in feminist translation and literary translation Parody Robert Chambers, 2010 Parody The Art That Plays with Art explodes the near universal belief that parody is a copycat genre or that it consists of a collection of trivial and derivative forms Parody is revealed as an ber technique a principal source of innovation and invention in the arts The technique is defined in terms of three major variations that bang bind and blend artistic conventions into contrasting pairings the results of which are upheavals of existing conventions and the formation of unexpected and sometimes startling and revolutionary new configurations Parodic art fashions a galaxy of contrasts and from these stem an illusionistic sense of multiplicity and an array of divergent meanings and interpretive paths This book an extreme departure from existing analyses of parody is nonetheless highly accessible and will be of major interest not only to scholars but to general readers and to professional writers as well Parody The Art That Plays with Art is particularly suited for readers interested in modernism postmodernism meta art criticism satire and irony Plays Well in Groups Katherine Frank, 2013-06-27 From tribal religious rituals to the Playboy mansion and from ancient Rome to Burning Man Plays Well in Groups explores the phenomenon of group sex Author Katherine Frank draws on surveys ethnographic research participant interviews and more to provide explanations for both participation in group sex and our complex reactions to it from fascination to fear This book looks at group sex across cultures who has it and why Group sex is almost always taboo and often criminalized and yet it persists across cultures throughout history Plays Well in Groups looks at the symbolism of orgies as well as contemporary manifestations of group sex in bathhouses and public sex venues at BDSM and swinging parties on

Craigslist and in political scandals Tantra classes reality television and more Frank explores the many reasons people participate in group sex from arousal to spiritual transcendence in this bold study of subversive sexuality Catherine Millet, 2009 After the pleasure comes the pain The Sexual Life of Catherine M Catherine Millet's analysis of the many forms and flavours of sexual pleasure was internationally admired and not just for its literary qualities The audacity of a sex life well lived and thoroughly examined left readers wondering how she managed to pull it off while sustaining her relationship with life partner writer Jacques Henric I had love at home she explained I sought only pleasure in the world outside Then one day she discovered a letter lying about the apartment from which it became clear that Jacques was involved elsewhere Jealousy details the crisis provoked by this discovery and her reaction to it If The Sexual Life of Catherine M seemed to disregard emotion Jealousy is its radical complement the paradoxical confession of a libertine who succumbs to the timeless and universal malady Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Brvan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher's lists in France it's tempting some fifty years after post structuralism's heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology

Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen's wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature s mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
