Sexual Harassment At Work:

Sexually harassed at work: An overview of the research in the Nordic countries Svensson, Malin, 2020-06-30
Online publication <https://pub.norden.org/temanord2020/521/Abstract/en> Sexual harassment is a major social problem in working life in the Nordic countries which the Me Too movement of autumn 2017 demonstrated in particular. This research overview has been compiled on behalf of the Nordic Council of Ministers for Gender Equality with the purpose to provide an account of current knowledge about sexual harassment in the workplace in the Nordic countries and to identify the knowledge gaps to form the basis for a Nordic research initiative. The work is based on a survey of the research into the various ways in which sexual harassment is expressed in people's working lives based on occupations of varying nature in professional situations in peer relations and in meetings with customers, patients and clients. The overview is based on a systematic review of the research and other relevant literature from the Nordic countries between the years 2014-2019.

Sexual Harassment at Work Ann Sedley, Melissa Benn, 1982 Preventing Sexual Harassment at Work Ekselius, Inga-Bodil, Lundqvist, Maja, Simonsson, Angelica, Available online <https://pub.norden.org/nord2024/018> Sexual harassment at work is a challenge for the Nordic labour market and to the goal of creating an inclusive gender equal and cohesive region. International and Nordic studies alike show that sexual harassment exists in all sectors of the labour market and that it has serious negative consequences. Therefore the five Nordic gender equality ministers decided to allocate funding for new research on sexual harassment at work in the Nordic Region. The goal was predominantly to contribute towards new knowledge with a focus on preventive measures and intervention methods. The research funding initiative was carried out 2021-2023 in collaboration between the Nordic sectors for gender equality, culture and working life and the Nordic Committee for Children and Young People. In this publication you can read more about the research initiative, the projects and their key messages.
