Sexual Visions:

Sexual Visions L. J. Jordanova, 1993 Demonstrates that gender as a metaphor has had an exceptionally vigorous life in the history of biological and medical sciences     The sexual life of our time: a complete encyclopaedia of the sexual Iwan Bloch, 1937     Seeing Nature Through Gender Virginia Scharff, 2003 Environmental history has traditionally told the story of Man and Nature Scholars have too frequently overlooked the ways in which their predominantly male subjects have themselves been shaped by gender Seeing Nature through Gender here reintroduces gender as a meaningful category of analysis for environmental history showing how women's actions, desires and choices have shaped the world and seeing men as gendered actors as well In thirteen essays that show how gendered ideas have shaped the ways in which people have represented, experienced and consumed their world Virginia Scharff and her coauthors explore interactions between gender and environment in history Ranging from colonial borderlands to transnational boundaries from mountaintop to marketplace they focus on historical representations of humans and nature on questions about consumption on environmental politics and on the complex reciprocal relations among human bodies and changing landscapes They also challenge the ecofeminist position by challenging the notion that men and women are essentially different creatures with biologically different destinies Each article shows how a person or group of people in history have understood nature in gendered terms and acted accordingly often with dire consequences for other people and organisms Here are considerations of the ways we study sexuality among birds of William Byrd's masking sexual encounters in his account of an eighteenth century expedition of how the ecology of fire in a changing built environment has reshaped firefighters' own gendered identities Some are playful as in a piece on the evolution of snow bunnies to shred bunnies Others are dead serious as in a chilling portrait of how endocrine disruptors are reinventing humans, animals and water systems from the cellular level out Aiding and adding significantly to the enterprise of environmental history Seeing Nature through Gender bridges gender history and environmental history in unexpected ways to show us how the natural world can remake the gendered patterns we've engraved on ourselves and on the planet     Good Sex Raymond A. Belliotti, 1993 Rules about sexuality written and unwritten have existed in every culture as have disagreements over what is and isn't acceptable Must morally permissible sex have only one function Must it be heterosexual Must it occur within the confines of the institution of marriage Must it be accompanied by requisite emotions such as love and intimacy     The Journal of Sex Education, 1949     The Psychical correlation of religious emotion and sexual desire James Weir, 1897     Body and mind Henry Maudsley, 1890     Erotic Utopia Olga Matich, 2005-07-08 The first generation of Russian modernists experienced a profound sense of anxiety resulting from the belief that they were living in an age of decline What made them unique was their utopian prescription for overcoming the inevitability of decline and death both by metaphysical and physical means They intertwined their mystical erotic discourse with European degeneration theory and its obsession with the destabilization of gender In Erotic Utopia Olga Matich suggests that same sex desire underlay their most radical utopian proposal of abolishing the traditional procreative family in favor of erotically induced abstinence 2006 Winner CHOICE Award for Outstanding Academic Titles Current Reviews for Academic Libraries Honorable Mention Aldo and Jean Scaglione Prize for Studies in Slavic Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association Offers a fresh perspective and a wealth of new information on early Russian modernism It is required reading for anyone interested in fin de siècle Russia and in the history of sexuality in general Bernice Glatzer Rosenthal Slavic and East European Journal Thoroughly entertaining Avril Pyman Slavic Review     Sex and Culture Joseph Daniel Unwin,1934

Dramatic Re-visions Susan M. Steadman,1991 Students and theatre practitioners should find this comprehensive bibliography a vital resource for any investigation into feminist drama theatre and performance Throughout this book the author presents the feminist challenge to re vision the ways we look at teach practice and represent our culture     Driving Visions David Laderman,2002-07 Examines and profiles road movies made since the late 1960s citing their common theme of journeys as a cultural critique and exploration beyond society and within the self and tracing the historical evolution of the genre from its Hollywood precursors through the European variations Simultaneous     The Enlightenment Ryan Patrick Hanley,Darrin M. McMahon,2010 More than any earlier period of European intellectual history the age of Enlightenment infused the republic of letters with social and political significance this long awaited new collection from Routledge brings together in five volumes the very best scholarship on the period and its legacy It also incorporates historical and critical essays addressed to the Enlightenment s alleged responsibility for institutions or policies prevalent in the twentieth century including economic globalization and the Holocaust     The Truth about Woman Catherine Gasquoine Hartley,1913

Visions of Reality Joan Ellen Perry,1976     Body and mind: an inquiry into their connection and mutual influence ... lectures ... Henry Maudsley,1870     History, Literature and the Representation of Women in Eighteenth-century France Rebecca A.
