Sexy Utopia:

Sex and Sexuality in Europe, 1100-1750 Andrew Mansfield, 2023-10-02 Transcending the traditional categories of medieval and early modern to analyse pan European attitudes and behaviours Sex and Sexuality in Europe 1100 1750 provides students with a grounding in the history of sexuality by supplying both a detailed analysis of the existing historiographical debates but also analysis of the primary sources such as autobiographies and contemporary literature Offering an accessible overview that places sex and sexuality within the historical context of the time period it creates a deeper understanding of connections and differences across Europe An interdisciplinary work it draws on cultural social religious philosophical literary economic and scientific ideas while incorporating theory from within the field to broaden perspective of the history of sexuality Challenging the separation of the medieval and early modern periods this volume highlights a great deal of continuity between 1100 and 1750 across Europe with change occurring more notably towards the eighteenth century Key interventions on the role of the passions the imagination the two worlds motif and subordination are made across the work Moreover it questions the belief that the Middle Ages was one of sexual repression and highlights a second world in which sex was a natural even celebrated part of life and engages with the belief that the eighteenth century saw a sexual revolution This book is essential reading for students scholars and the general public interested in the history of sexuality

Utopia's Debris Gary Indiana, 2008-11-11 Gary Indiana is one of America's leading cultural critics a public intellectual who has written key essays on every aspect of American culture Utopia's Debris comprises selections of his very best work revealing him to be an enormously acute frequently scabrous and always brilliant observer of the best and worst America has to offer His writings range from popular culture trash novels architectural wonders and horrors to appreciations of the best of modern literature art and cinema They include his convincing and highly entertaining debunking of fashionable conspiracy theories a spirited and contrarian defense of Bill Clinton's autobiography a Menckian like examination of the rise of Arnold Schwarzenegger and the politics of celebrity in what Indiana calls the Age of Contempt A postmodern Emerson Indiana wields scalpel sharp wit and a fealty to logic on issues in which all too often irrationalism and emotionalism hold sway At times rigorously serious at other times whimsical Indiana's most conspicuous feature is skepticism his wildly satirical contempt for conventional wisdom

Critical Terms for the Study of Gender Catharine R. Stimpson, Gilbert Herdt, 2022-12-22 Gender systems pervade and regulate human lives in law courts and operating rooms ballparks and poker clubs hair dressing salons and kitchens classrooms and playgroups Exactly how gender works varies from culture to culture and from historical period to historical period but gender is very rarely not at work Nor does gender operate in isolation It is linked to other social structures and sources of identity So write women's studies pioneer Catharine R Stimpson and anthropologist Gilbert Herdt in their introduction to Critical Terms for the Study of Gender laying out the wide ranging nature of this interdisciplinary and rapidly changing field The sixth in the series of Critical Terms books this volume provides an indispensable introduction to the study of gender through an exploration of key terms that are a part of everyday discourse in this vital subject Following Stimpson and Herdt's careful account of the evolution of gender studies and its relation to women's and sexuality studies the twenty one essays here cast an appropriately broad net spanning the study of gender and sexuality across the humanities and social sciences Written by a distinguished group of scholars each essay presents students with a history of a given term from bodies to utopia and explains the conceptual baggage it carries and the kinds of critical work it can be made to do The contributors offer incisive discussions of topics ranging from desire identity justice and kinship to love race and religion that suggest new directions for the understanding of gender studies The result is an essential reference addressed to students studying gender in very different disciplinary contexts

Policing Public Sex Ephie Glenn Colter, Dangerous Bedfellows, 1996 As some activists have turned to regulation rather than education in the effort to curb the AIDS epidemic the public culture at the foundation of queer culture has come under attack

A World Made Sexy Paul Rutherford, 2007 The cult of eroticism is a pervasive force in modern society affecting almost every aspect of our daily lives In this book Paul Rutherford argues that this phenomenon is a product of one of the major commercial and political enterprises of the twentieth and twenty first centuries the creation of desire for sex for wealth and for entertainment A World Made Sexy examines museum exhibitions art books magazines films and television to explore the popular rise of eroticism in America and across the developed world Starting with a brief foray into the history of pornography Rutherford goes on to explore a sexual liberation movement shaped by the ideas of Marx and Freud the erotic styles of Salvador Dali and pop art the pioneering use of publicity as erotica by Playboy and other media and the growing concerns of cultural critics over the emergence of a regime of stimulation In one case study Rutherford pairs James Bond and Madonna in order to examine the link between sex and aggression He details how television advertising after 1980 constructed a theatre of the libido to entice the buying public and concludes by situating the cultivation of eroticism in the wider context of Michel Foucault's views on social power and governmentality and specifically how they relate to sexuality during the modern era A World Made Sexy is about power and pleasure emancipation and domination and the relationship between the personal passions and social controls that have crafted desire
