Peasant Politics Geoff Lamb,1974-07-01      Peasant Politics; Conflict and Development in Murang'a G. B. Lamb,1974

Peasant Consciousness and Guerrilla War in Zimbabwe Terence O. Ranger,1985 Draws on a wide range of archival and oral sources to argue that the history of African peasants in Zimbabwe produced a specific consciousness which meant that peasant participation in the guerrilla war was different from the peasant role in Mau Mau or in the war in Mozambique It also examines the changing relations between the peasantry and the Zimbabwean state after the 1980 elections North America U of California Press      Social Structure and Rural Development in the Third World Guy Berger,1992-10-22

An analysis of the relationship between Third World farmers and the international economy      Politics and Government in African States Peter Duignan,Robert H. Jackson,2022-08-01 Originally published in 1986 Politics and Government in African States 1960 1985 deals with the politics of sub Saharan African states since independence Each chapter considers the formal structure of government at the time of independence and traces the subsequent changes Each chapter also describes the development of the state machinery the civil service the parastatals defence and police forces party structure the political opposition and trade unions The economics of African states are dealt with insofar as they affect politics and government

The Development of Corporate Capitalism in Kenya, 1918-77 Nicola Swainson,1980-01-01      1974 Annual Supplement Joan Schmitz Bergholt,2013-12-21      Post-Colonial Kenya Rok Ajulu,2021-07-28 This engaging reassessment of postcolonial Kenya argues that the country's political turmoil over the last fifteen years is a continuation of repeating patterns of political contestation and conflict across Kenya's history When Kibaki stole the 2007 presidential election leading to a spiral of violence that left over 1 000 people dead in the space of a month many analysts wondered how this could happen in a country that had previously been considered an oasis of peace in an otherwise conflict prone region Combining political economy with political sociology in this book Rok Ajulu demonstrates that in fact authoritarianism and the predatory deployment of the state has been the predominant feature of Kenya's post colonial period Focusing on how power has been mediated in the country politically and the characters of the elites in charge the analysis shows the dominance of extra economic political coercion in economic activity In a context in which economic activity remains predominantly political continued control of state power is so crucial for the new ruling class that it must be retained at all costs Rok Ajulu's masterful final book is a powerful and wide ranging contribution to studies on post colonial Kenya and will be an important resource for researchers from across political science economics history sociology and African Studies      The Local Politics of Rural Development Michael Bratton,1980 Research report on the impact of local level politics on rural development in Zambia comprising a case study of Kasama District discusses development planning and institutional framework political party organisation elections central government influence and impact on resource allocation covers interest groups performance of local government village human settlement lack of popular participation peasant movements etc Bibliography maps and references      The
