Gender and Justice in Family Law Disputes Samia Bano,2017-05-02 How mediation and religious dispute resolution mechanisms operate within diverse communities      Education and Sociology David Levinson,Peter Cookson,Alan Sadovnik,2014-01-21 First Published in 2002 This single volume reference provides readers and researchers with access to details on a wide range of topics and issues in the sociology of education Entries cover both national and international perspectives and studies as well as tackling controversial points in education today including gender inequality globalization minorities meritocracy and more This is a key one of a kind resource for all educational researchers and educators

Remotely Controlled Aric Sigman,2005 How Television is Damaging Our Lives And What We Can Do About It More than an indictment of the dangers of watching too much television Remotely Controlled draws attention to the glaring imbalances in our lives and shows us how exposure to greenery can counter the harmful effects of the screen      You Have Stept Out of Your Place Susan Hill Lindley,1996-01-01 Women throughout American history have repeatedly been accused of stepping out of their places as many have fought for more rewarding roles in the church and society In this book Susan Hill Lindley demonstrates that just as religion in the traditional sense has influenced the lives of American women through its institutions values and sanctions so women themselves have had significant effect on the shape of American religion through the years      The View from the Border John Kotre,2017-07-28 In this unique psychological study John Kotre provides some startling answers to the questions Catholics are now asking about those who abandon the church those who remain in it and those who attempt to create a new church within the church A detailed examination of the borderline between membership and ex membership in the Catholic Church as perceived by young adults reared within the Catholic educational system the book provides an impressive substantive contribution to understanding not only of the modern church but of organizational change in general Kotre himself a product of the Catholic educational system positions himself amid the tension and ambiguity between those who consider themselves in and those who consider themselves out of the Catholic Church He designed a systematic questionnaire covering four hundred variables about each subject s beliefs values perceptions of parents and reasons for being an insider or an outsider Using this questionnaire he individually interviewed one hundred graduates of Catholic colleges The surprising results of this important research show that in spite of sixteen years of formal Catholic education the attitudes of both the ins and the outs are not influenced by their Catholic upbringing so much as by their primary group relationships Recent research has shown that adult Americans are leaving their childhood faiths at ever increasing rates and that the Catholic Church is suffering the greatest losses Kotre s book offers an insightful psychological perspective on this dramatic movement It is a must read for professional psychologists and sociologists theologians and people interested in the psychology and sociology of religion      First Things ,1995      Breaking Faith John Cornwell,2001 The Catholic Church is an extraordinary operation Even in our supposedly secular age it numbers more than a billion faithful throughout the world and its followers are increasing at a remarkable rate But today on the threshold of a new papacy Catholics face a gamut of crises threatening division fragmentation even schism Far from healing the rift the Vatican under Pope John Paul II is driving the opposing factions still further apart Journal of Religion and Health ,1988 The Janus Report on Sexual Behavior Samuel S. Janus,Cynthia L. Janus,1993 Explicit detailed and authoritative it challenges sexual myths by presenting revealing details about aspects of American sex separating facts from fiction and anxiety Nine years of research interviews and mass questionnaire results document how the influence of education age sex religion politics marital status income and regions of the country affect sexual practices and attitudes The Witness ,2000
