Strengthening Families and Ending Abuse Nancy Nason-Clark,Barbara Fisher-Townsend,Victoria

Fahlberg,2013-06-04 Strengthening families of different varieties and ending abuse in the myriad of forms through which it surfaces is God s way of bringing peace and safety to Christian homes across the world We challenge congregations their leaders and the men women and youth who faithfully support them to consider their personal role in bringing this vision inspired by the Scriptures into reality Together our voices can be strong We are united in our belief that every home should be a safe home every home a shelter from the storms of life every home a place where we are supported treated with respect and dignity and every home a place where men and women are encouraged to be all they can be It is a tall order It is a dream to guide our personal conduct and to measure our congregational and community life We are far from reaching this goal but toward it we strive Vocation and Violence Miryam Clough,2022-01-17 As MeToo and its sister movement ChurchToo demonstrated sexual violence is systemic in many and varied workplace settings including Christian churches and can destroy women s careers and vocational aspirations The study draws on empirical evidence personal stories from survivors and the views of church leaders and educators in dialogue with theoretical perspectives to consider clergy sexual abuse of adult women and the conditions that support it Institutional abuse only changes when survivors come forward This study focusses on New Zealand Anglicanism the locus of the author s experience and has resonance for a range of denominational settings It aims to be a useful resource to clergy ministry educators and those training for ministry and to academics and scholars with an interest in theology gender and professional ethics Notably it will be a potentially helpful text for women survivors of sexual misconduct by clergy not least those who are considering a future in the church or grieving the loss of one The volume concludes by suggesting that alternative theological models and relational ethics are essential if the church is to truly address the problem of clergy sexual abuse and give greater priority to the abused Christian Social Action ,1995
