Sexual Visuality From Literature To Film 1850-1950:

Sexual Visuality From Literature To Film 1850-1950 D. Denisoff, 2004-03-19 A must read for scholars of visuality gender and sexuality Denisoff's study explores the ways in which gothic sensation and noir literature and cinema manipulated common notions of the visual in order to challenge sex and gender based assumptions that marginalized certain people and desires Addressing authors and directors such as Mary Braddon Wilkie Collins Oscar Wilde Vernon Lee Virginia Woolf Daphne du Maurier Alfred Hitchcock Otto Preminger and Fritz Lang this study shows that what a society gets is often what it tries hardest not to see

Confronting Visuality in Multi-Ethnic Women's Writing A. Laflen, 2014-08-07 Considering new perspectives on writers such as Toni Morrison Margaret Atwood and Louise Erdrich Confronting Visuality in Multi ethnic Women's Writing traces a cross cultural tradition in which contemporary female writers situate images of women within larger contexts of visuality

Media, Technology, and Literature in the Nineteenth Century Margaret Linley, 2016-04-29 Operating at the intersection where new technology meets literature this collection discovers the relationship among image sound and touch in the long nineteenth century The chapters speak to the special mixed media properties of literature while exploring the important interconnections of science technology and art at the historical moment when media was being theorized debated and scrutinized Each chapter focuses on a specific visual acoustic or haptic dimension of media while also calling attention to the relationships among the three Famous works such as Wordsworth's I wandered lonely as a cloud and Shelley's Frankenstein are discussed alongside a range of lesser known literary scientific and pornographic writings Topics include the development of a print culture for the visually impaired the relationship between photography and narrative the kaleidoscope and modern urban experience Christmas gift books poetry painting and music as remediated forms the interface among the piano telegraph and typewriter Ernst Heinrich Weber's model of rationalized tactility and how the shift from visual to auditory telegraphic instruments amplified anxieties about the place of women in nineteenth century information networks Full of surprising insights and connections the collection offers new impetus for stimulating historical conversations and debates about nineteenth century media while also contributing fresh perspectives on new media and re mediation today

Decadent Poetics J. Hall, A. Murray, 2013-08-23 Decadent Poetics explores the complex and vexed topic of decadent literature's formal characteristics and interrogates previously held assumptions around the nature of decadent form Writers studied include Oscar Wilde Charles Baudelaire and Algernon Charles Swinburne as well as A. E. Housman Arthur Machen and Hubert Crackanthorpe

Aristocratic Women and the Literary Nation, 1832-1867 Muireann Ó'Cinnéide, 2008-11-03 Aristocratic Women and the Literary Nation 1832-1867 offers a literary complement to recent historians' emphasis upon the cultural visibility and significance of the British aristocracy during the Victorian period Aristocratic women benefited from a leisured model of socialised dilettante interaction that allowed them both to maintain and to market their high social status through their writing but this model could prove a liability in attempts at serious social and or intellectual engagement Instead these women became targets for critiques aimed at defining certain forms of individual and national identity even as they themselves adapted to changing value schemes Aristocratic women s writing therefore offers an important literary and cultural trope through which to consider gendered models of influence elite identities the nature of politics private and public spheres marriage professional identities literary hierarchies imperial experiences and ultimately the ongoing representation of the nation state between the Reform Bills of 1832 and 1867 BOOK JACKET Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2008 Sex and the Goddess Jessica Hope Jordan,2008 The Broadview Anthology of Victorian Short Stories Dennis Denisoff,2004-05-11 The Broadview Anthology of Victorian Short Stories beautifully demonstrates the astonishing variety and ingenuity of Victorian short stories This collection brings together works focused on a wide range of popular Victorian subjects in many different styles and forms including comic gothic fantasy adventure and colonial works science fiction children s tales New Woman writing Irish yarns stories originally published in popular periodicals and travel stories Both well known and lesser known authors are included and both men and women are well represented This anthology includes twenty six annotated stories a general introduction that discusses the history of the genre s development in relation to key socio political issues of the Victorian era and suggestions for secondary readings It also includes an intriguing selection of Victorian writings on the genre by Edgar Allan Poe Charles Dickens Margaret Oliphant Frederick Wedmore and Laura Marholm Hansson

Nineteenth-century Studies ,2005 British Aestheticism and Ancient Greece Stefano-Maria Evangelista,2009-05-22 British Aestheticism and Ancient Greece is the first comprehensive study of the reception of classical Greece among English aesthetic writers of the nineteenth century By exploring this rich history of reception the book aims to give readers a new and fuller understanding of literary aestheticism its intellectual contexts its cultural and sexual politics and its challenges to mainstream Victorian culture Aestheticism asks its readers to reformulate the very idea of classicism embodied in ancient Greece into a radical ideal Aesthetic writers such as Walter Pater Vernon Lee Michael Field and Oscar Wilde reclaim classical Greece from institutionalised education in order to transform it into a terrain for the appreciation and production of art vindicating the role of the imagination in scholarly writing and promoting a late Romantic belief in the power of art and the aesthetic to affect the way we live Neurology and Literature, 1860-1920 Anne Stiles,2007-09-28 The essays in this collection demonstrate how late Victorian and Edwardian neurology and fiction shared common philosophical concerns and rhetorical strategies Between 1860 and 1920 neurologists like Silas Weir Mitchell and Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote moving literature while novelists like H G Wells and Wilkie Collins used fiction to dramatize neurological discoveries and their consequences These six decades witnessed unprecedented interdisciplinary collaboration between scientists and artists who found common ground in their shared ambivalence towards the prevailing intellectual climate of biological determinism

Sexual Visuality from Literature to Film, 1850-1950 Dennis Denisoff,2004 With the body what you see is not exactly what you get For centuries vision has often been held as the purest most direct encounter between the individual and the outside world Recent visuality theory however has demonstrated that the process of seeing is always influenced by other senses cultural elements memory and history Meanwhile scholarship on gender and sexuality has developed a conception of the body itself as a text written by more than one person and read in more than one way Sexual visuality from literature to film 1850 1950 explores the ways in which gothic sensation and noir literature and cinema manipulated common notions of the visual in order to foreground our unsightly desires By doing so the texts challenged sex and gender based assumptions that marginalized certain types of people Addressing authors and directors such as Mary Braddon Wilkie Collins Oscar Wilde Vernon Lee Virginia Woolf Daphne du Maurier Alfred Hitchcock Otto Preminger and Fritz Lang this study shows that what a society gets is often what it tries hardest not to see A must read for scholars and students of visuality gender and sexuality

Feminist Periodicals ,2004     New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005     Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2004

The Victorian Press and the Fairy Tale C. Sumpter,2008-07-24 Shortlisted for the 2011 Mythopoeic Scholarship Award for Myth and Fantasy Studies Victorian writers often claimed that the press was killing the fairy tale In fact it ensured the genre s popularity bringing literary tales and folklore to the first mass readerships Exploring penny weeklies adult and children s monthlies little magazines and the labour press this innovative study is the first to combine media and fairy tale history Bringing reading communities back into focus Sumpter explores ingenious political uses of the fairy tale in debates over socialism evolution and race and in the context of women s rights decadence and gay culture The book offers new insights into the popularisation of folklore and comparative science and also recovers neglected visual material From the fantasies of Kingsley MacDonald and J H Ewing to the writings of Keir Hardie Laurence Housman and Yeats Sumpter reveals that the fairy tale was intimately shaped by the press and that both were at the heart of nineteenth century culture

Globalization and the Great Exhibition Paul Young,2009-01-29 This title foregrounds a capitalists vision of peace and progress which took hold of British society in 1851 emphasizing that this Victorian understanding of global order legitimized imperial ambition     Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research

Association,2004 Includes both books and articles     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004
