

1 Sexuality, Space, and Place

- Sexuality and space encompass all relationships and interactions between human sexuality, space, and place
- Early work on LGBTQIA+ geographies throughout the 1990s was done by academics working in American universities, and focused almost exclusively on the lives of those in the global North
- Within contemporary geography, studies of sexuality are primarily social and culture in orientation, though there is also notable engagement with political and economic geography, particularly in work on the rise of queer autonomous spaces, economies and alternative (queer) capitalisms
- Part of drag's current allure is that more people are seeing traditional concepts of male and female differently, aligning with how drag queens have always viewed them
 - RuPaul's Drag Race has been credited with bringing drag culture, language, and mannerisms to a mainstream audience; however, most competitors call into common tropes, like camp, pageant, or glamour, rather than representing the full spectrum of drag as a performance art and expression of identity
 - The show's language borrows from the documentary "Paris is Burning", which explains the origins and meanings behind much of the drag culture we see today, often appropriated from Black and Latino LGBTQIA+ communities

Sexuality And Space:

Sexuality & Space Beatriz Colomina, Jennifer Bloomer, 1992 Both timely and well worth the time Thomas Keenan Newsline aia Award Winner Oculus Bestseller Sexuality, Rurality, and Geography Andrew Gorman-Murray, Barbara Pini, Lia Bryant, 2012-12-27 This international edited collection contributes to knowledge about the geographies of sexualities experienced and imagined in rural spaces The book draws attention to the heterogeneity of rural contexts and the diversity of meanings about sexualities within and across these spaces The collection examines four key themes First Intimacies and Institutions focuses on how intimate relationships are governed by societal discursive and institutional structures and regulated by social political and legal frames of citizenship and belonging The chapters present historical and contemporary case studies of the constitution and management of intimate sexual lives and relationships in rural and non metropolitan spaces Second Communities explores how sexual identities are socially constructed and relationally performed in rural communities scrutinizing the complex interplay of belonging and alienation inclusion and exclusion for sexual subjects and communities within rural spaces Analyzing films literature and interviews the chapters examine sexuality and community and queer notions of rural family and community Third Mobilities examines movement migration at different scales Cross national data provides insights into similarities and differences in rural migration and homemaking for lesbians gay men and same sex families The chapters consider how movement coming out and memories of time and place inflect home identity and belonging for rural lesbians and gay men Fourth Production and Consumption investigates the commodification of rural sexualities The chapters interrogate the management of animal bodies and sexualities in industrial agriculture for consumer pleasure and commercial ends how heterosexuality and sexual relations are transacted in mining communities and the global commodification of rural masculine sexualities This book is timely It provides important new insights about ruralities and sexualities filling a gap in theoretical and empirical understandings about how sexualities in diverse rural spaces are given meaning This collection begins the processes of furthering discussion and knowledge about the inherently dynamic and constantly changing nature of the rural and the multiple varied and complex sexual subjectivities lived through corporeal experiences and virtual and imagined lives Closet Space Michael P. Brown, 2005-08-29 Is the closet just a metaphor Closet Space provides a highly original account of the spatial metaphor of the closet and is the first geography text to focus on this important issue Using a variety of research techniques and materials the book explores the closet through texts including the oral histories of gay men in the UK and US the sexualised landscape of a New Zealand city the national census of Britain and the US international travel guides and travelogues and refers to the work of Butler Lefebvre and Foucault Notes on Sexuality and Space Samuel Ray Jacobson, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Department of Architecture, 2013 Very little has been written on sexuality in architectural scholarship Sexuality Space Princeton Architectural Press 1992 contains the proceedings of an eponymous 1990 conference at Princeton University and was both the first and last book length publication dedicated to a comprehensive discourse on sexual identity within the discipline of architecture While symposium organizer and proceedings editor Beatriz Colomina writes in the proceedings introduction that the occasion s effort to raise the question of Sexuality and Space was but one small event in an ongoing discourse that discourse failed to materialize To the extent that feminist theorists conspicuously ignored in architectural discourse and practice are addressed by Sexuality Space the interdisciplinary exchange in which theories of sexuality are reread in architectural terms and architecture is reread in sexual terms by its essays asserts the very silence that its inquiry ostensibly alleviated By carefully examining the constative impact of literary style within the publication Sexuality Space that is by looking at how the use of language therein impacts that document s inscription of its intellectual and historical context I have come to a better understanding of how that publication was both the beginning and end of the conversation it sought to inaugurate Notes on Sexuality and Space investigates three related essays from that publication Laura Mulvey s Pandora Topographies of the Mask and Curiosity Beatriz Colomina s The Split Wall Domestic Voyeurism and Mark Wigley s Untitled The Housing of Gender Each investigated essay has been given a corresponding chapter My method has been close reading or the sustained interpretation of brief passages of text Paying close attention to individual words syntax and the order in which ideas unfold as they are read I have developed a comprehensive narrative of how these three essays together both instantiate and negate a shared discourse To these ends this thesis raises serious questions about what it means to have historiography after silence and what it means to re open an already closed discourse
