studying gender and sexuality in the museum On Femininities in the Song of Songs and Beyond Vita Daphna Arbel, 2022-01-13 Vita Daphna Arbel uses critical theories of gender to offer an alternative reading of the multilayered conceptualization of the Song of Songs' feminine protagonist the most beautiful woman Arbel treats the most beautiful woman as a culturally constructed and performed representation of woman and situates this representation within the cultural discursive contexts in which the Song partly emerged She examines the gender norms and cultural ideologies it both reflects and constructs and considers the manner in which this complex representation disrupts rigid ahistorical notions of femininity and how it consequently indirectly characterizes womanhood as dynamic and diverse Finally Arbel examines the reception and impact of these ideas on later conceptualizations of the Song of Songs' female protagonist with a heuristic examination of Mark Chagall's Song of Songs painting cycle Le Cantique des Cantiques These compositions selected for their diverse depictions of the Song's protagonist their impact on European art and their vast popularity and bearing in the broader cultural imagination illustrate a fascinating dialogue between the present and the past about the most beautiful woman and about multiple femininities Generations and Geographies in the Visual Arts: Feminist Readings Griselda Pollock, 2005-08-12 In Generations and Geographies in the Visual Arts: Feminist Readings the challenge of contemporary feminist theory encounters the provocation of the visual arts made by women in the twentieth century The major issue is difference sexual cultural and social The book points to the singularity of each artist's creative negotiation of time and historical and political circumstance Griselda Pollock calls attention to the significance of place location and cultural diversity connecting issues of sexuality to those of nationality imperialism migration diaspora and genocide Women of Babylon Zainab Bahrani, 2013-03-07 Representations of sexual difference whether visual or textual have become an area of much theoretical concern and investigation in recent feminist scholarship Yet although a wide range of relevant evidence survives from the ancient Near East it has been exceptional for those studying women in the ancient world to stray outside the traditional bounds of Greece and Rome Women of Babylon is a much needed historical art historical study that investigates the concepts of femininity which prevailed in Assyrian Babylonian society Zainab Bahrani's detailed analysis of how the culture of ancient Mesopotamia defined sexuality and gender roles both in and through representation is enhanced by a rich selection of visual material extending from 6500 BC 1891 AD Professor Bahrani also investigates the ways in which women of the ancient Near East have been perceived in classical scholarship up to the nineteenth century Reallexikon für Antike und Christentum Franz Joseph Dölger, Jan Hendrik Waszink, Hans Lietzmann, Theodor Klauser, Ernst Dassmann, Leopold Wenger, Georg Schöllgen, Christian Hornung, 1950 Mensch und Tier in der Antike Annetta Alexandridis, Markus Wild, Lorenz Winkler-Horaček, 2008 English summary These conference proceedings explore the encounter of human and animal nature from a philological historical and archaeological perspective in areas such as the body myth religion and cult politics and philosophy Ancient texts and images present a broad variety of approaches to the question of how if at all to define the boundaries between both species At the same time it becomes evident how strongly the conception of both humans and animals were shaped by anthropomorphism so that a distinction between both is in the end impossible German description Dieser Kongressband untersucht aus philologischer historischer und archaologischer Perspektive verschiedene Bereiche der Antike in denen Mensch und Tier oder auch menschliche und tierische Naturen aufeinandertreffen Antike Texte und Bilder aus Religion und Kult Mythos Politik und Philosophie zeigen ein weites Spektrum an Möglichkeiten wie die Grenzen zwischen Mensch und Tier gezogen oder aber auch aufgelöst werden können Die Vorstellungen die sich in Sprache Texten und Bildern manifestierten sind allerdings so stark von Anthropomorphismus geprägt dass eine konzeptionelle Trennung von Mensch und Tier kaum möglich ist
