Standish, Mark Bedau, Hussein A. Abbass, 2003 How high level behaviors arise from low level rules and how understanding this relationship can suggest novel solutions to complex real world problems such as disease prevention stock market prediction and data mining on the Internet The term artificial life describes research into synthetic systems that possess some of the essential properties of life This interdisciplinary field includes biologists computer scientists physicists chemists geneticists and others Artificial life may be viewed as an attempt to understand high level behavior from low level

rules for example how the simple interactions between ants and their environment lead to complex trail following behavior An understanding of such relationships in particular systems can suggest novel solutions to complex real world problems such as disease prevention stock market prediction and data mining on the Internet Since their inception in 1987 the Artificial Life meetings have grown from small workshops to truly international conferences reflecting the field s increasing appeal to researchers in all areas of science

Advances in Artificial Life Jozef Kelemen,Petr Sosik,2003-06-30 Why is the question of the difference between living and non living matter tellectually so attractive to the man of the West Where are our dreams about our own ability to understand this difference and to overcome it using the rmly established technologies rooted Where are for instance the cultural roots of the enterprises covered nowadays by the discipline of Arti cial Life Cont plating such questions one of us has recognized 6 the existence of the eternal dream of the man of the West expressed for example in the Old Testament as follows the Lord God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and the man became a living being Genesis 2 7 This is the dream about the workmanlike act of the creation of Adam from clay about the creation of life from something non living and the con dence in the magic power of technologies How has this dream developed and been converted into a reality and how does it determine our present day activities in science and technology What is this con dence rooted in Then God said Let us make man in our image Genesis 1 26 Man believes in his own ability to repeat the Creator s acts to change ideas into real things because he believes he is godlike This con dence is using the trendy Dawkins term perhaps the most important cultural meme of the West

Strange Acts Rick Strelan,2004 This book examines many of the strange events and actions in Acts in the context of the Hellenistic world and from that perspective These events and actions include the ascension of Jesus direction by the Spirit visions angelophanies prison escapes and resuscitations of the dead Many of these events are either avoided in scholarship or are investigated with an agenda other than to understand them for themselves The book constructs an ancient audience to be one that has a close familiarity with the Septuagint and with other Greek and Latin writings The culturally strange events are then interpreted through the lens of these texts Oliver Optic's Magazine for Young and Old Oliver Optic,1875
