Shadow Puppets:

The Shadow Puppet Theatre of Malaysia Beth Osnes, 2014-01-10 This comprehensive book explores the Malaysian form of shadow puppet theatre highlighting its unique nature within the context of Southeast Asian and Asian shadow puppet theatre traditions. Intended for a Western audience not familiar with Asian performance and practices, the text serves as a bridge to this highly imaginative form. An in-depth examination of the Malaysian puppet tradition is provided, as well as performance scripts, designs for puppet characters, instructions for creating a shadow screen, and easy directions for performance. Another section then considers the practical, pedagogical, and ethical issues that arise in the teaching of this art. Shadow Puppets Olive Blackham, 1960 Gives historical information as well as the practical, including the making of several types of puppets. Also covers staging, sets, lighting, and packing. Shadow Puppets and Shadow Play David Currell, 2015-05-31 Shadow Puppets and Shadow Play is a comprehensive guide to the design, construction, and manipulation and presentation of shadow puppets, considered by many to be the oldest puppet theatre tradition. Traditional shadow play techniques, together with modern materials and methods, and recent explorations into theatre of shadows are explained with precision and clarity and illustrated by photographs that include the work of some of the finest shadow players in the world. Topics covered include an introduction to shadow play, its traditions, and the principles of shadow puppet design; advice on materials and methods for constructing and controlling traditional shadow puppets and scenery; step-by-step instructions for adding detail and decoration and creating transcendent figures in full colour; detailed methods for constructing shadow theatres using a wide range of lighting techniques; techniques of shadow puppet performance and contemporary explorations with shadow play; and instructions for making animated silhouette films with digital photography. Lavishly illustrated throughout, Shadow Puppets and Shadow Play sets out detailed instructions for making and presenting shadow puppets by traditional methods and with the latest materials and techniques. Superbly illustrated with 420 colour photographs and helpful tips and suggestions.

Shadow Puppets in Color Louise Cochrane, 1972 Three traditional shadow plays accompany directions for making shadow puppets in color and a shadow theater. Shadow Puppets, Shadow Theatres, and Shadow Films Lotte Reiniger, 1975

Creativity in Education Nicole Brown, Amanda Ince, Karen Ramlackhan, 2024-01-29 Creativity has become a buzzword across all disciplines in education and across all phases from early years through to tertiary education. Although the meaning of creativity can change vastly depending on the global educational setting, it is impossible to ignore the applicability and relevance of creativity as an educational tool, philosophical framework, and pedagogical approach. Through case studies of creativity in varying settings and diverse contexts, this collection explores the ground-breaking work undertaken internationally to support, develop, and future-proof learners with and for creativity. The chapters are centred around a practice-based enquiry or other forms of empirical research. This provides the scholarly basis upon which creativity is continuously reconceptualised and redefined in the educational and country-specific context of each study. Contributors from different countries then provide critical reflective and analytical responses to each chapter These conversational responses focus further on international education perspectives and provide a dialogue for educators into how methods and approaches can be transferred translated and contextually mediated for different environments Through the case studies and responses Creativity in Education provides practical insights for application in a wide range of educational settings and contexts such as the use of art exhibitions and object work as well as more philosophical approaches to teacher education leadership for learning and creativity as a universal phenomenon
