Shadow Dog:

A Dog and His Shadow ... Robert Edward Francillon, 1894      Play It Again, Sam Samuel Jay Keyser, 2025-05-27 Why we enjoy works of art and how repetition plays a central part in the pleasure we receive Leonard Bernstein in his famous Norton Lectures extolled repetition saying that it gave poetry its musical qualities and that music theorists refusal to take it seriously did so at their peril Play It Again Sam takes Bernstein seriously In this book Samuel Jay Keyser explores in detail the way repetition works in poetry music and painting He argues for example that the same cognitive function underlies both how poets write rhyme in metrical verse and the way songwriters like Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn Satin Doll and Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart My Funny Valentine construct their iconic melodies Furthermore the repetition found in these tunes can also be found in such classical compositions as Mozart's Rondo alla Turca and his German Dances as well as in galant music in general The author also looks at repetition in paintings like Gustave Caillebotte's Rainy Day in Paris Andy Warhol's Campbell's Soup Cans and Jackson Pollock's drip paintings Finally the photography of Lee Friedlander Roni Horn and Osmond Giglia Giglia's Girls in the Windows is one of the highest grossing photographs in history are all shown to be built on repetition in the form of visual rhyme The book ends with a cognitive conjecture on why repetition has been so prominent in the arts from the Homeric epics through Duke Ellington and beyond Artists have exploited repetition throughout the ages The reason why is straightforward the brain finds the detection of repetition innately pleasurable Play It Again Sam offers experimental evidence to support this claim      Computational Cognition Roland Hausser, 2023-08-31 Modern science is divided into three parts natural sciences engineering sciences and humanities Over the last millennia natural and engineering sciences evolved a symbiotic relationship but humanities still stand apart Today however designing and building a talking robot is a comparatively new challenge for which all three branches are needed Starting from the idea that designing a theory of computational cognition should be as complete as possible and trying to answer questions such as Which ontology is required for building a computational cognition the current book integrates interfaces components functional flows data structure database schema and algorithms into a coherent system with an extensive range of cognitive functions and constitutes the background to the book Ontology of Communication recently published by the author Springer 2023 Part I discusses ontological distinctions between a sign based and an agent based approach and continues with explanations of the data structure the content addressable database schema the time linear derivations of the speak and the hear mode resonating content induction deduction and abduction in inferencing and concludes with a reconstruction of eight classical syllogisms as a test suite for DBS inferencing in the think mode Part II complements the literal use of language in the speak and hear mode with a reconstruction of syntactic mood adaptations and figurative use The database schema of DBS is shown to lend itself not only to the tasks of traditional storage and retrieval but also of reference coreference shadowing coactivation of resonating content and selective activation Part III complements the treatment of individual topics in linguistics philosophy and cognitive psychology with an overall software structure in the form of three interacting main components called the interface the memory and the production component     The Shadow Dog Anthony Hill,2003 Anthony Hill s The Shadow Dog is an eloquent affecting tribute to a great mate his dog Sebastian From the moment Sebastian is rescued as an abandoned pup this passionate feisty dog proves irresistible even when he fails Obedience School Anyone who has a heart especially anyone who has ever loved a dog will be entertained and moved in equal measure by this joyful celebration of mutual devotion In The Shadow Dog Anthony Hill weaves his story telling magic to create a very personal tale of love and loyalty     Land of Sunshine Charles Fletcher Lummis,Charles Amadon Moody,1896     The Land of Sunshine ,1896     A Child's Version of Æsop's Fables Aesop,1886     The Evil Eye Elworthy,1895     Fables and nursery tales Charles Eliot Norton,George Henry Browne,1895     The Gentleman's Magazine ,1875     Ballou's Monthly Magazine ,1877     Captain Fritz Emily Huntington Miller,1877     The Dog Fancier ,1929     Common School English James G.
