Foote, 2013-12-06 Winner John Brinckerhoff Jackson Prize Association of American Geographers 1997 Shadowed Ground explores how and why Americans have memorialized or not the sites of tragic and violent events spanning three centuries of history and every region of the country For this revised edition Kenneth Foote has written a new concluding chapter that looks at the evolving responses to recent acts of violence and terror including the destruction of the Branch Davidian compound at Waco Texas the Oklahoma City bombing the Columbine High School massacre and the terrorist attacks of 9 11 Shadowed a Novel Jerry B. Radner,2010-06-01 In The World in the Shadow of God Ephraim Radner argues for a vigorous Christian natural theology and insists that such a theology must of necessity be performed poetically The peculiar character of such a theology is found in its disclosing of the natural limits that indicate indirectly the impinging and more fundamental reality of the divine life Natural theology represents the encounter between created reality and the shadow of God s creative and revelatory grace However the encounter is a morally demanding task for the Christian church if it is to be held accountable to the truth on which its life is based The first portion of the book offers an extended critical essay on the nature of this sort of natural theology while the second provides a developed set of examples through poems that display the natural world in light of the truths articulated in the Apostles Creed Those interested in the intersection of theology literature history and the natural world will be challenged by this attempt to renew a basic element of Christian knowledge and culture UNIX Administration Bozidar
