Shaftesbury An Illustrated History:

Shaftesbury Brenda Innes,1992-01-01 John Cassell's Illustrated History of England John Frederick Smith,1859

John Cassell's illustrated history of England. The text, to the reign of Edward i by J.F. Smith; and from that period by W. Howitt Cassell, Ltd,1865 Cassell's Illustrated History of England: From the accession of James I to the revolution of 1688 ,1879 Property, Power and the Growth of Towns Catherine Casson,Mark Casson,2023-05-05 Local enterprise institutional quality and strategic location were of central importance in the growth of medieval towns This book comprising a study of 112 English towns emphasises these key factors Downstream locations on major rivers attracted international trade and thereby stimulated the local processing of imports and exports while the early establishment of richly endowed religious institutions funnelled agricultural rental income into a town where it was spent on luxury goods produced by local craftsmen and artisans and on expensive long running building schemes Local entrepreneurs who recognised the economic potential of a town developed residential suburbs which attracted wealthy residents Meanwhile town authorities invested in the building and maintenance of bridges gates walls and ditches often with financial support from wealthy residents Royal lordship was also an advantage to a town as it gave the town authorities direct access to the king and bypassed local power brokers such as bishops and earls The legacy of medieval investment remains visible today in the streets of important towns Drawing on rentals deeds and surveys this book also examines in detail the topography of seven key medieval towns Bristol Gloucester Coventry Cambridge Birmingham Shrewsbury and Hull In each case surviving records identify the location and value of urban properties and their owners and tenants Using statistical techniques previously applied only to the early modern and modern periods the book analyses the impact of location and type of property on property values It shows that features of the modern property market including spatial autocorrelation were present in the middle ages Property hot spots of high rents are also identified the most valuable properties were those situated between the market and other focal points such transport hubs and religious centres convenient for both but remote from noise and pollution This book takes an interdisciplinary approach drawing on expertise from the disciplines of economics and history It will be of interest to historians and to social scientists looking for a long run perspective on urban development Cassell's Illustrated History of England ,1865 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1892 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1891 A catalogue of the library collected by John Stanfeld, Leeds John Stansfeld,1882 The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe Yue Zhuang,Alasdair Forbes,Michael Charlesworth,2025-01-23 The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency In the current times of war pandemic climate change and global anxiety the value of the garden as a sanctuary a space where we can find refuge in a natural environment has taken on new and poignant meanings and has attracted increasing academic interest

Multidisciplinary and multicultural in scope this book explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency Examining perspectives from scholars including art historians architects philosophers landscape architects and garden practitioners it reassess the restorative impact of the garden whether understood from an individual cultural or environmental point of view Ranging widely across Asia and Europe its chapters examine ideas narratives and practices from the 4th century Chinese poet Tao Yuanming to the 12th century Iranian polymath Omar Khayyam through to the late 20th century British artist and film maker Derek Jarman Drawing upon traditional Asian philosophies like Buddhism Daoism and Sufism and combining these with more recent western philosophies the aim is to question how the unique virtues of gardens and designed landscapes can help to poise educate and possibly transform attitudes and behaviours in a time of personal environmental or cultural crisis At once poetic scholarly and rigorous this book provides insightful reading for students and researchers in landscape architecture garden history architectural history art history and cultural history
