Bowker Company, 1982 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998 A Catalogue of Books Published by Houghton Mifflin and Company, Boston and New York Houghton Mifflin Company, 1887 Our Old Home: A Series of English Sketches Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2019-11-26

In Our Old Home A Series of English Sketches Nathaniel Hawthorne offers a contemplative exploration of English culture landscape and history through a series of vivid essays. Written during his years in England, the work is characterized by Hawthorne's signature style: a blend of romantic sensibility and keen observation. The sketches delve into a variety of subjects from the idyllic English countryside to the haunting remnants of its storied past. In this book, Hawthorne also grapples with the contrast between American and English cultural life, reflecting on themes of identity, nostalgia, and national character. Hawthorne, a prominent figure in American literature and a master of psychological depth, was shaped by his Puritan ancestry, personal struggles, and a profound fascination with his surroundings. His experiences in Europe, particularly in England, provided him a lens through which he could examine not only his own American upbringing but also the broader implications of cultural heritage. This context enriches the sketches, allowing them to resonate with readers across generations as they evoke both personal and universal sentiments. Recommended for both fans of Hawthorne and new readers alike, Our Old Home offers a unique window into 19th-century English life through the eyes of one of America's greatest literary figures. In the summer of 1860, Hawthorne returned to America and prepared for the Atlantic Monthly some sketches of England, which appeared in that magazine in 1862 and 1863 and with others were published in book form in 1863 under the title Our Old Home. The opening article, Consular Experiences, gives some curious incidents in his office at Liverpool and describes queer Americans who came for the consular help. The closing one, Civic Banquets, affords a glimpse at some of the public social intercourse to which his position introduced him Licheld and Uttoxeter is devoted largely to Dr Johnson Long before Hawthorne had written for children the story of Johnson's penance in Uttoxeter market The offense taken by the Uttoxeter people at an article published in Harper's Magazine is mentioned in the English Note Books vol ii August 2 1857 Recollections of a Gifted Woman gives some notes on Stratford together with reminiscences of Delia Bacon In Yesterdays with Authors Mr Fields says One of the most difficult matters he had to manage while in England was the publication of Miss Bacon's singular book on Shakespeare The poor lady after he had agreed to see the work through the press broke off all correspondence with him in a storm of wrath accusing him of pusillanimity in not avowing full faith in her theory so that as he told me so far as her good will was concerned he had not gained much by taking the responsibility of her book upon his shoulders It was a heavy weight for him to bear in more senses than one for he paid out of his own pocket the expenses of publication The other articles of the book describe Warwick Oxford Leamington Boston Lincoln some parts of London and the haunts of Burns Our Old Home Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1876 A series of English sketches Our old home (1876) Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1876 *Our old home; a series of English sketches.
