The Social Psychology of Sport Gordon W. Russell, 2012-12-06 This book is written from the perspective of a social psychologist. As a consequence the topics covered in the upcoming chapters were chosen from among those traditionally of interest to the discipline of social psychology. A criterion for inclusion was the topic's usefulness in providing insights and understanding of the social processes at work in sports settings. To this end I have drawn extensively from mainstream journals in social psychology e.g. Journal of Personality and Social Psychology and grounded the discussion of topics and issues on the methodologically sound studies/experiments they generally provide. There is also an equally strong interdisciplinary emphasis that features research from physical education, sociology, management science and education. I have made a further attempt not as successful as I would have liked to incorporate a substantial amount of the fine sports research that has been conducted overseas particularly in Europe and Australia. I am hopeful that in bringing together the works of international scholars from a variety of disciplines a clearer and balanced outline of this field will take shape. And now a word about the audience for this text and how to get the most from its pages. I would suggest that the reader have taken a course in social psychology following an introductory level course. An introductory course in research methodology would also be helpful.

Before You Go John Aizlewood, 2025-09-29 Before You Go is a love story between father and son of their love of football and of Stevenage FC. By award-winning author, journalist and broadcaster John Aizlewood. This compelling book offers a unique fresh adventure into the heart and soul of lower league football as seen through the eyes of a vastly experienced well-travelled football writer and his teenage son. John and his 14-year-old son Oscar attend every Stevenage FC aka Boro game of the 2024/25 season home and away league and cups. The narrative flows from Stevenage FC's season. They travel by car, train and coach and they explore every location they visit whether they're eating Blackpool's finest fish n' chips or smelling Rotherham's indoor market. They stand on the grave of a queen, they shout themselves hoarse, they gaze in wonder at team buses, they marvel at Stonehenge, squabble about tactics and about each other and they eat too many culinarily challenged pies. The book provides a cultural snapshot of England and Wrexham in 2024 and 25, the fixture list decides where they go, but each location has its own story. Before You Go is not only the saga of a season in the life of the smallest club in League One. It's also the story of a father and son bonding and sharing their lives through football before Oscar takes his GCSEs and goes on to become a man and before John moves rather more reluctantly into later life. Ebony, 2001-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Founded in 1945 by John H. Johnson, it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine.

Media Literacy in Action Renee Hobbs, 2024-10-14 There's never been a more important time for students to develop media literacy competencies. When students ask critical questions about the media they consume, they develop fundamental knowledge and critical thinking skills that prepare them for life, work and meaningful citizenship. Media Literacy in Action addresses learners who are simultaneously active as both creators and consumers of media messages At the same time the book recognizes that everyone is vulnerable to media influence because of our dependence on the instant gratification and feelings of connectedness that digital platforms provide To thrive in a media saturated society people need to ask critical questions about what we watch see listen to read and use This book gives students those tools Key features of the second edition Critical examination of AI technologies algorithmic personalization data privacy and surveillance and the increased global regulation of digital platforms Attention to media literacy for empowerment and protection Inquiry oriented approach to learning that cultivates intellectual curiosity and creative expression Full color presentation with figures and photos to increase student engagement Each chapter includes Media Literacy Trailblazers Profiles of key thinkers and their theories connect students with the discipline of media literacy Media Literacy DISCOURSE NEW Visual representations of media literacy theoretical principles help learners internalize the practice of asking critical questions as they respond to specific media examples Learning in Action NEW Summary and vocabulary sections combine with Analyze Create Reflect and Act activities to empower students to apply ideas from each chapter Supplemental Materials available at www.mlaction.com Students can review key ideas learn about more Media Literacy Trailblazers and watch videos aligned with each chapter Instructors can access a Teacher's Guide of best practices in class activities homework and projects Also available are chapter summaries lecture slides YouTube playlists and test materials The Owl University of Pittsburgh, 1921
