Fundamentals of Mental Health Nursing Andrew Clifton, Steve Hemingway, Anne Felton, Gemma Stacey, 2017-11-06
Fundamentals of Mental Health Nursing is an accessible evidence based introduction to the role of the mental health nurse. This comprehensive overview explores concepts of mental health and distress, ethics and accountability, key nursing models to be aware of, and the prevalence, predisposing factors and features of the most commonly occurring mental health problems. KEY FEATURES Places mental health conditions and interventions within a wider holistic context. Situates recovery at the centre of mental health nursing practice. Links key concepts to mental health across the lifespan. Contains learning outcomes in each chapter and includes vignettes, activities and reflective exercises to root concepts in real life practice. Information is placed in a practice context from the outset, making this an essential guide to both the theory and the practice of mental health nursing. It is ideal for students on courses relating to mental health care, as well as for registered nurses and health care practitioners looking to revise their knowledge of key concepts. www.wiley.com/go/fundamentalsofmentalhealth
Interactive multiple choice questions. Links to online resources. Chapter summary sheets. Psychiatric Interviewing and Assessment Rob Poole, Robert Higgs, 2017-08-07 An engaging and accessible guide to developing interpersonal clinical skills in the interviewing and assessment of psychiatric patients. A Pragmatic Guide to Low Intensity Psychological Therapy Elizabeth Ruth, James Spiers, 2023-05-17 With the rapidly growing demand for mental health care, there is a need for efficient and effective psychological treatment options. Low Intensity Psychological Therapy has become well established in the England Improving Access to Psychological Therapies (IAPT) programme as a beneficial and versatile treatment option for mild/moderate symptoms of depression and anxiety. A Pragmatic Guide to Low Intensity Psychological Therapy: Care in High Volume provides a guide to Low Intensity Psychological Therapy from the perspective of the Low Intensity Practitioner. This book describes the Low Intensity role as part of a multi-disciplinary approach to psychological care. The authors use a series of case vignettes, personal experience and current literature to help navigate the context of the role and its potential for ethical and safe expansion. Offers a practitioner perspective on the efficacy research of Low Intensity psychological interventions in adult populations, with a focus on working with diversity. Aims to support Low Intensity Practitioners in developing competency within the role, with a focus on reflective practice, supervision and personal wellbeing. Includes case vignettes and examples to explore the real world implementation of Low Intensity interventions in group and individual settings, including the management of long term physical health conditions. Explores the benefits and pitfalls of the current role of the Low Intensity psychological practitioner within the IAPT programme. Discusses the expansion of the Low Intensity psychological practice to international regions. A Guide to the Formulation of Plans and Goals in Occupational Therapy Sue Parkinson, Rob Brooks, 2020-11-29 This practical guide for occupational therapists introduces a tried and tested method for moving from assessment to intervention by formulating plans and measurable goals using the influential Model of Human occupation MOHO Section 1 introduces the concept of formulation where it comes from what it involves why it is important and how assessment information can be guided by theoretical frameworks and organised into a flowing narrative Section 2 provides specific instructions for constructing occupational formulations using the Model of Human Occupation In addition a radically new way for creating aspirational goals is introduced based on a simple acronym which will enable occupational therapists to measure sustained changes rather than single actions Section 3 presents 20 example occupational formulations and goals from a wide range of mental health physical health and learning disability settings as well as a prison service and services for homeless people and asylum seekers Designed for practising occupational therapists and occupational students this is an essential introduction for all those who are looking for an effective way to formulate plans and goals based on the Model of Human Occupation
