Portrait Of Jennie:

Portrait of Jenny Maurice S. Rawlings, 2008-11 An oil painting The Portrait of Jenny divides two brothers in life and two sisters in death The brothers one a priest and one a physician each vie for the love of Jenny one of the sisters The priest unknowingly paints his love into Jenny's portrait Then to prove that he loves God more the priest joins the Vatican in Rome The physician meanwhile yields to whims and marries Jenny having amassed a great fortune by modifying growth hormones until they engender perpetual youth perhaps opening the door to the Holy Grail On the other side of the world where the Pope is dying from cancer Father Anthony Cochran strives to thwart secular forces from swaying the next Papal election An intriguing battle ensues behind the scenes which unites two crime families that separately target the two brothers Although resembling the story of Cain and Abel the Biblical prophesy seems unfulfilled until Brett Ding first reaches vengefully from the grave to consume his own brother Years later the story is exposed when a newspaper reporter writes an article on the award winning Portrait of Jenny which today hangs in the National Museum of Art in the nation's capitol
