Students with diverse backgrounds and learning needs require more than a simple virtual classroom. Research reveals a concerning trend: high attrition rates in online courses often attributed to a lack of engagement and insufficient human interaction. To reverse this trend, deliberate measures must be taken to humanize the online learning environment. This book provides several solutions offering an array of tools and strategies to promote engagement and infuse the human touch into online spaces. To confront this multi-layered challenge, it becomes paramount to undertake deliberate measures aimed at humanizing the online learning environment. Humanizing Online Teaching and Learning in Higher Education steps forward as a guide offering an extensive array of tools and strategies meticulously crafted to foster student engagement and infuse the essential human touch into the digital educational landscape.

Artificial Intelligence Applications in Higher Education Helen Crompton, Diane Burke, 2024-10-31. Artificial Intelligence Applications in Higher Education offers direct examples of how artificial intelligence systems can be applied in today's higher education contexts. As the use of AI rapidly advances within colleges and universities worldwide, there is a pressing need to showcase the challenges, opportunities, and ethical considerations that are inherent in deploying these advanced computational tools. This book highlights the multifaceted roles of AI across teaching and learning, institutional administration, student data management, and beyond. Its collected case studies furnish actionable insights into enhancing academic institutions and addressing diverse learning priorities such as motivation, engagement, feedback, and achievement goals. This valuable reference for researchers, designers, administrators, teaching faculty, and graduate students across various university programs offers fresh perspectives on generative AI, adaptive learning, intelligent tutoring systems, chatbots, predictive technologies, remote learning, and more.

The United States Law Week, 1940. Shifting Journalism Boundaries in Zimbabwe Mphathisi Ndlovu, Lungile Tshuma, 2025-12-03. This book investigates the ways in which peripheral news actors in digital media are transforming journalism in Zimbabwe. Journalism's boundaries have become blurred, porous, and fuzzy as non-traditional news actors such as bloggers, social media influencers, citizen journalists, start-ups, satirists, comedians, and fact checkers gain increasing influence in digital spaces. As legacy news media attempt to ring-fence the field, journalism becomes both bounded and boundless. This book examines how peripheral journalistic practices are impacting Zimbabwe, a semi-authoritarian regime facing significant economic pressures. Taking into account Zimbabwe's specific sociocultural, political, and economic context, this book explores how political issues are mediated by periphery actors, how they deal with challenges to their legitimacy and professionalism, how sustainable their positions are, and finally, what the implications of shifting journalistic boundaries are for education and training institutions. As the impact of digital technologies continues to rise, this timely book will be an important read for researchers working on journalism, media, and communication, and African studies.
