PART 2  ReadingMUSIC FESTIVALS
AROUND THE WORLD

1. Read the following text.

Visiting a festival abroad can be a great reason to travel and a way to experience different cultures.

These days there is such a wide range of choice that it's possible to spend the whole of the summer listening to live music in exciting locations. It can often be cheaper to go to a different country and, of course, it's a chance to meet people from across the world.

Melt! Festival, Ferropolis, Germany

This unique festival takes place on the site of an open air museum for industrial machinery. It's also surrounded by a lake which can be used for swimming when it's hot. Around 90% of festival goers are German, providing a perfect opportunity to practise speaking the language.

¹⁰ Exit Festival, Serbia

Located on the banks of the Danube in an old fortress, the festival began as a protest against the government. These days it's less political but still has a strong social conscience. There are stages devoted to electronic, world, dance and hard rock music, providing something for everyone to enjoy.

Belladrum Tartan Heart Festival, Scotland

- ¹⁵ Set on a remote Scottish estate near Inverness, there's a decidedly Celtic flavour to this festival with lots of smaller folk stages. The highlight of the weekend is the massive Ceilidh (traditional Scottish dance and party), which is always a lively event.
