Popol Vuh The Great Mythological Of The Ancient Maya:

Popol Vuh ,1977-04 Popol Vuh ,1974 Encyclopedia of Ancient Deities Charles Russell Coulter,Patricia Turner,2021-12-06 Throughout history humans have pondered the question of their existence In nearly every society part of the answer has included some form of god or goddess For the Mayans one such deity was Ajtzak who tried to create humans from wood for the Yorubas of Africa Shango controlled the thunder and lightning The Chinese of the Shang dynasty era worshipped Shang Ti Evil deities were also part of the answer as in the case of the Kuvera the Hindu chief of evil in the Vedic period and Tu the Persian or Islamic demon of fatal accidents All of the known ancient gods many heretofore obscure or known only from mythological literature are included in this exhaustive reference work The focus is on their origins histories and functions The people who believed in each deity are identified along with alternate names or spellings both old and modern The descriptions that follow are of the functions origins and physical nature of the deities Extensive cross references are provided for alternate spellings and names Decolonizing Indigeneity Thomas Ward,2016-12-20 While there are differences between cultures in different places and times colonial representations of indigenous peoples generally suggest they are not capable of literature nor are they worthy of being represented as nations Colonial representations of indigenous people continue on into the independence era and can still be detected in our time The thesis of this book is that there are various ways to decolonize the representation of Amerindian peoples Each chapter has its own decolonial thesis which it then resolves Chapter 1 proves that there is coloniality in contemporary scholarship and argues that word choices can be improved to decolonize the way we describe the first Americans Chapter 2 argues that literature in Latin American begins before 1492 and shows the long arc of Mayan expression taking the Popol Wuj as a case study Chapter 3 demonstrates how colonialist discourse is reinforced by a dualist rhetorical ploy of ignorance and arrogance in a Renaissance historical chronicle Agustin de Z rate s Historia del descubrimiento y conquista del Per Chapter 4 shows how by inverting the Renaissance dualist configuration of civilization and barbarian the Nahua Aztecs who were formerly considered barbarian can be civilized within Spanish norms This is done by modeling the categories of civilization discussed at length by the Friar Bartolom de las Casas as a template that can serve to evaluate Nahua civil society as encapsulated by the historiography of Fernando de Alva Ixtlilxochitl a possibility that would have been available to Spaniards during that time Chapter 5 maintains that the colonialities of the pre Independence era survive but that Criollo indigenous dialogue is capable of excavating their roots to extirpate them By comparing the discussions of the hacienda system by the Peruvian essayist Manuel Gonz lez Prada and by the Mayan Quich eye witness to history Rigoberta Mench this books shows that there is common ground between their viewpoints despite the different genres in which their work appears and despite the different countries and the eight decades that separated them suggesting a universality to the problem of the hacienda which can be dissected This book models five different decolonizing methods to extricate from the continuities of coloniality both indigenous writing and the
