Woodside vs the Planet Marian Wilkinson, 2025-09-01 Why is Australia doubling down on fossil fuels The world may have committed at Paris to hold back dangerous climate change but Australia's fossil fuel giant Woodside is doubling down it has bold new plans to keep producing gas out to 2070 Support from the major parties is locked in so something has to give This is a story of power and influence pollution and protest How does one company capture a country How convincing is Woodside's argument that gas is a necessary transition fuel as the world decarbonises And what is the new energy realism narrative being pushed by Trump's White House In this engrossing essay Marian Wilkinson reveals the ways of corporate power and investigates the new face of resistance and disruption The stakes could not be higher The gas companies and the Labor governments in WA and Canberra had refined their defence the gas industry was helping the world decarbonise curbing its emissions and providing energy security It sounded like the planet could hardly have a better friend than Australia's LNG industry and companies like Woodside Marian Wilkinson Woodside vs the Planet This issue contains correspondence relating to Hard New World by Hugh White from Lachlan Harris Emma Shortis Ali Wyne James Curran Susannah Patton Mark Edele Brendan Taylor Clive Edwards and Hugh White

Professor vs. Campaigner: Confirming Policy Politics of Contemporary India from Harvard to Hardworking Bikram Keshori Jena, 2025-01-23 Professor vs Campaigner Confirming Policy Politics in India is an illuminating treatise that explores the evolving interplay between scholarly ideals and pragmatic political strategies in the realm of Indian governance This profound work delves into the distinct yet interconnected worlds of academic theorists who advocate for policy rooted in rigorous research and political campaigners who emphasize the importance of populist approaches grounded in immediate practical needs Through incisive case studies and analysis of contemporary policy discourse the book unveils how policy is forged not merely through academic insight but tempered by the urgency and complexity of political realities It thoughtfully navigates the delicate balance between intellectual aspiration and electoral demands illustrating how these forces though seemingly at odds must coexist to address India s unique socio political challenges Professor vs Campaigner thus serves as a rich discourse on the nature of Indian policymaking providing readers with a discerning lens into how policies are shaped through a dynamic synthesis of high theory and political necessity This book stands as an essential contribution to understanding how governance and development in India are molded by the constant negotiation between lofty ideals and the pragmatism of lived experience Mediaweek ,2009
