Thompson,2013-11-11 ON THE FUTURE OF PERSPECTIVES When Patrick Bateson and Peter Klopfer offered me the editorship of Perspectives in 1992 the world of academic publishing was in one of its periodic upheavals Subscriptions to series even distinguished series such as Perspectives had been declining and individual volume prices had been rising a trend that if continued could only result in the series pricing itself out of the market In the course of the negotiations around the change of editors the publishers offered a cost cutting solution change the production pattern to camera ready and eliminate the costs of indexing and proofreading While I could see the sense in this proposal I was reluctant to accept it Part of what I had always liked about the volumes in this series was that they were real books intelligently proofread nicely laid out and provided with proper indexes Thus I in return offered a Devil's bargain the publisher should maintain the present quality of the series for two more volumes and make a renewed effort to advertise the series to our ethological and sociobiological colleagues while I as the new series editor committed myself to a renewed effort to make Perspectives the publication of choice for writers who are trying to get their message out to the world intact and readers who are seeking clear coherent comprehensive and untrammelled presentations of authors ideas and research programs Zur kritik des theoretischen anspruchs und der grundbegrifflich...
