Real World Careers Betsy Cummings, 2009-05-30 The most provocative business book of the year is the ultimate guide to having a great career and financial security even if you haven't graduated with a college degree. With so much emphasis in society on the importance of finishing college, Real World Careers is filled with inspirational stories of people who skipped college or left early, launched successful careers, and were able to accelerate their earnings potential. From information technology to construction, blue collar to business startups, many jobs offer excellent pay and personal fulfillment and don't require a college degree. Written by an award-winning business journalist, this book also provides information on the vocational and trade schools that are a faster, more strategic road to landing work flexible and incentive-based careers that don't require a college degree, the option of entrepreneurship, overcoming preconceptions, and much more. Hello, Startup

Yevgeniy Brikman, 2015-10-21 This book is the Hello World tutorial for building products, technologies, and teams in a startup environment. It's based on the experiences of the author, Yevgeniy Brikman, as well as interviews with programmers from some of the most successful startups of the last decade, including Google, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, GitHub, Stripe, Instagram, AdMob, Pinterest, and many others. Hello Startup is a practical how-to guide that consists of three parts: Products, Technologies, and Teams. Although at its core this is a book for programmers by programmers only, Part II, Technologies, is significantly technical, while the rest should be accessible to technical and non-technical audiences alike. If you're at all interested in startups, whether you're a programmer at the beginning of your career, a seasoned developer bored with large company politics, or a manager looking to motivate your engineers, this book is for you. Computerworld, 1998-08-24 For more than 40 years, Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide. Computerworld's award-winning Web site, Computerworld.com, twice monthly publication, focused conference series, and custom research form the hub of the world's largest global IT media network.
