Coughlin, 2017-11-07 Oldness a social construct at odds with reality that constrains how we live after middle age and stifles business thinking on how to best serve a group of consumers workers and innovators that is growing larger and wealthier with every passing day Over the past two decades Joseph F Coughlin has been busting myths about aging with groundbreaking multidisciplinary research into what older people actually want not what conventional wisdom suggests they need In The Longevity Economy Coughlin provides the framing and insight business leaders need to serve the growing older market a vast diverse group of consumers representing every possible level of health and wealth worth about 8 trillion in the United States alone and climbing Coughlin provides deep insight into a population that consistently defies expectations people who through their continued personal and professional ambition desire for experience and quest for self actualization are building a striking unheralded vision of longer life that very few in business fully understand His focus on women they outnumber men control household spending and finances and are leading the charge toward tomorrow's creative new narrative of later life is especially illuminating Coughlin pinpoints the gap between myth and reality and then shows businesses how to bridge it As the demographics of global aging transform and accelerate it is now critical to build a new understanding of the shifting physiological cognitive social family and psychological realities of the longevity economy _____ Topologies as Techniques for a Post-Critical Rhetoric Lynda Walsh, Casey

Boyle,2017-03-16 This book restores the concept of topology to its rhetorical roots to assist scholars who wish not just to criticize power dynamics but also to invent alternatives Topology is a spatial rather than a causal method It works inductively to model discourse without reducing it to the actions of a few or resolving its inherent contradictions By putting topology back in tension with opportunity as originally designed the contributors to this volume open up new possibilities for post critical practice in wicked discourses of medicine technology literacy and the environment Readers of the volume will discover exactly how the discipline of rhetoric underscores and interacts with current notions of topology in philosophy design psychoanalysis and science studies Broadcast Engineering ,1979 Lodging ,1975 Design News ,1978
