Meredith Wilson Library, Martha L. Brogan, 1980 Linking Clauses and Actions in Social Interaction Ritva Laury, Marja Etelämäki, Elizabeth Couper-Kuhlen, 2017-07-07 This volume concerns the ways in which verbal and non verbal actions are combined and linked in a range of contexts in everyday conversation in institutional contexts and in written journalism The volume includes an introduction which besides presenting the content of the articles discusses terminological fundamentals such as the understanding of the terms clause action and linkage and combining in different grammatical traditions and the ways they are conceived of here as well as open questions collectively formulated by the contributors in planning for the volume concerning the recognition emergence and distance of linkage and the ways these questions are addressed in the contributions to the volume Topics treated in the articles include combining physical actions and verbal announcements in everyday conversation linking of verbal and nonverbal actions as well as verbal linkages between nonverbal actions by dance teachers building pedagogical activity Other topics concern the mediation of questions through informal translating in multilingual conversation in order to organize participation and the ways in which student requests for clarification and confirmation create learning occasions in a foreign language classroom Still other articles concern the on line emergence of alternative questions with the Finnish particle vai or delayed completions of unfinished turns the transforming of requests and offers into joint ventures and the ways in which direct quotations are created in written journalism from the original talk in the spoken interview Most of the papers employ Conversation Analysis and Interactional Linguistics as a theoretical framework The languages used as data are Finnish English Estonian French Brazilian Portuguese and Swedish National Union Catalog, 1979 Includes entries for maps and atlases Inclusiveness Beyond the (Non)binary in Romance

Languages Gláucia V. Silva, Cristiane Soares, 2024-04-10 Inclusiveness Beyond the Non binary in Romance Languages Research and Classroom Implementation explores both research and best practices related to inclusive language so that all students regardless of gender identity may be active participants in their language learning communities Given the binary nature of Romance language grammars it is essential that scholarly inquiry into issues related to non binarism be further developed and become more visible and this volume aims to embed the issue of linguistic inclusivity within broader conversations surrounding social justice to ensure that conversations do not stop with mere linguistic changes The book is divided into two parts the first focuses on research related to inclusive and nonbinary forms in Romance languages while the second highlights teaching practices and encompasses inclusive approaches that go beyond the nonbinary Although the volume focuses on Romance languages most if not all of the content is applicable to other linguistic contexts This volume also goes beyond issues of gender inclusivity and includes content that leads to a reflection on issues of equity and social justice more broadly This edited volume is a resource for scholars whose research focuses on inclusive language and for educators who are interested in learning more about why and how to foster inclusiveness in their language classrooms and in their workplaces Puerto Rican Spanish, Reggaetón Style! The \(Socio\)Linguistics of Urban Music Wilfredo

Valentín-Márquez, Cristina Isabel Maymí, Derrek Powell, 2025-03-18 Featuring in depth studies of iconic reggaetón artists from Ivy Queen to Karol G Puerto Rican Spanish Reggaetón Style The Socio Linguistics of Urban Music is a groundbreaking collection that delves into the sociolinguistic intricacies of reggaetón This volume offers innovative examinations of the genre through a linguistic lens featuring a diverse range of methodologies and subdisciplines including phonology lexicography semantics and discourse analysis The chapters explore the stylistic elements that define reggaetón shedding light on the unique indexical value of sibilant and liquid consonants the distinctive lexicon of reggaetón lyrics and the ways in which artists use language to navigate and challenge racial and gender stereotypes in the construction of their performative identities By bridging the gap between linguistic theory and popular music this cutting edge volume offers a fresh perspective on reggaetón's cultural power It is an invaluable resource for anyone working in fields like language sociolinguistic analysis performance studies popular music and Puerto Rican culture Puerto Rican Spanish Reggaetón Style The Socio Linguistics of Urban Music will not only resonate with researchers but it will also captivate fans of reggaetón from cultural and media critics to the everyday listener With its thorough exploration of how language drives the global expansion and cultural significance of reggaetón this text is essential for anyone interested in the intersections of language music and sociocultural identity

Language, Migration and Multilingualism in the Age of Digital Humanities Ignacio Andrés Soria, Sandra Issel-Dombert, Laura Morgenthaler García, 2023-08-21 Located at the intersection of humanities and applied informatics the fledgling discipline of Digital Humanities is bringing new impulses to the field of Romance linguistics Those are especially productive in the context of migration and heteroglossic practices which encounter constraining language ideologies in Western societies The aim of this volume is to critically reflect on both the usefulness and limitations of digitization in different areas and superdiverse contexts of the Spanish speaking world Through 11 case studies it illuminates the digital turn from different theoretical and methodological perspectives providing a better understanding of the complex interplay between language and digitization

Constructing Families of Constructions Francisco José Ruiz de Mendoza Ibáñez, Alba Luzondo Oyón, Paula Pérez Sobrino, 2017-07-26 Within Construction Grammar this volume moves away from a compartmentalized view of constructions with the aim of providing a more holistic description of grammar Thus the book brings together analyses that look at constructional families within the construction of such languages as English Spanish German Polish Croatian and Hungarian Part 1 focuses on how different analytical perspectives may be applied to comparable and or connected constructions with a view to enhancing our understanding of their similarities differences and relations Part 2 contributes to the state of the art in Construction Grammar in three ways i by reconciling aspects of various constructionist analyses ii by determining to what extent competing constructionist perspectives can offer more adequate approaches to specific analytical needs and iii by challenging central assumptions within Construction Grammar This book is expected to encourage further research into the anatomy of constructional families and their interrelations in all domains of constructional organization
