A Return to Romance Michael Morgenstern, Guy Kettlehack, 1986-01-12 Draws on the experiences of actual couples to detail the factors involved in establishing and maintaining through a romantic imagination long lasting romantic relationships

Returning to Love Sharon Edwards, 2014-12-18 Hurry honey I see the light I have to go Come kiss me bye Bye baby I love you These are the last words my husband said to me when he transitioned It had been a long and tortuous path to enlightenment He got to see into heaven three weeks before he transitioned He could not believe the love We both learned life lessons and grew spiritually It had been a long journey for Richard and me but we both learned lessons of strength love forgiveness and most importantly the enlightenment needed to release the fear of death This is a journal of our love and living with Richards Alzheimers and Parkinsons prostate cancer and congestive heart failure I have fibromyalgia and chronic fatigue syndrome and I am relating the coping mechanisms I used to deal with Richards transition and the transition of my mom nine months before Richard The journey taken by those who are caregivers is a lonely one at times Coming to an acceptance is as hard for the caregiver and family and friends as it is for the one you love accepting the fact that no matter how positive your thoughts the healing for your loved one may be a healing of his or her soul and not of the body Then you and your loved one can walk his or her path together Your support can make your loved ones transition peaceful and loving As you help loved ones to lose their fear of dying you will learn of the beauty and love awaiting them in heaven This will aid in your healing when your loved ones transition to heaven There will be sadness and tears will flow because they are gone and not physically with you anymore You can find strength and peace in knowing that the care you gave allowed your loved ones to die with dignity surrounded by love and support and without fear Solariad Surazeus Astarius, 2017-10-15

Murthy, 2014-10-16

Historicizing Fiction/Fictionalizing History brings together two authors Umberto Eco and Orhan Pamuk not frequently studied in comparison By focusing on their non fictional works to present a unique study of the methods and concepts of representation Murthy uses contemporary historical novels to examine fictional depictions of reality and provides a fresh perspective on representation studies in literature Written in an accessible style and tapping into fields as varied as literary and critical theory the historical novel postmodernism and historiography Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History considers the ways in which reality as discourse confronts a text external reality and how this confrontation affects the autonomy of the fictional space topics that remain persistently problematic areas within literary studies Eco's The Name of the Rose and Baudolino and Pamuk's My Name is Red and Snow with their topical concerns and methods of representation promise a rewarding comparative study This book provides an early critical framework for these four works placing them within the rubric of the postmodernist historical novel as creative works that also comment on the process of literary writing through their recreation of historical pasts In this respect Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History promises to be an engaging read in literary criticism and historiography as well as a handy companion for Eco and Pamuk enthusiasts

Eros, Pleasure, Friendship, and The Good Life James J. Winchester, 2025-07-03 The book invites its readers to explore the role erotic love pleasure and friendship play in crafting a good life These topics are enduring themes that captures the heart of human existence and have been the focus of many works of philosophy and literature However there remains scope for further examination This book offers a compelling case to expand the exploration beyond the preponderance of white male canonical figures that have dominated the field in order to include an array of scholars that more accurately capture the diversity of humanity It does so by drawing on Greek Asian African Continental and Feminist thinkers and exploring a myriad of literary works to illustrate and interrogate the theories
