Chinese Strategy and Military Modernization in 2015 Anthony H. Cordesman, Steven Colley, 2016-01-12 China's emergence as a global economic superpower and as a major regional military power in Asia and the Pacific has had a major impact on its relations with the United States and its neighbors. China was the driving factor in the new strategy the United States announced in 2012 that called for a rebalance of U.S. forces to the Asia Pacific region. At the same time, China's actions on its borders in the East China Sea and in the South China Sea have shown that it is steadily expanding its geopolitical role in the Pacific and having a steadily increasing impact on the strategy and military developments in other Asian powers.

F&S Index United States Annual, 1999 U.S. News & World Report, 2009 Mothering in the Third Wave Amber E. Kinser, 2008. Mothering in the Third Wave is a welcome addition to scholarship on both third wave feminism and feminist mothering. The volume continues in the tradition of earlier third wave anthologies in its inclusive and diverse vision of feminisms and feminists while forging new ground in its focus on third wave mothers and third wave practices of mothering. In exploring how the institution of motherhood is shaped by today's political and social realities, Mothering in the Third Wave examines contemporary experiences of feminist mothering while connecting to earlier writing on the subject since the 1970s. Recommended for readers of any generation interested in the complexities of feminist mothering in the twenty-first century. Astrid Henry, author of Not My Mother's Sister: Generational Conflict and Third Wave Feminism.
