Igniting Justice and Progressive Power David B. Reynolds, Louise Simmons, 2021-06-21 A progressive resurgence is happening across the United States This book shows how long lasting coalitions have built progressive power from the regional level on up Anchored by the think and act affiliate organizations of the Partnership for Working Families PWF these regional power building projects are putting in place the vision policy agenda political savvy and grassroots mobilization needed for progressive governance Through six sections the book explores how Partnership for Working Families projects are a core part of the defeat of the right wing in states such as California the challenge to corporate neoliberalism in traditionally liberal areas and contests for power in such formally solid red states as Arizona Georgia and Colorado This book considers how these PWF groups work on economic racial and environmental justice challenges equitable development and other critical issues It addresses how at their core they bring together labor community environmental and faith based organizations and the coalitions and campaigns that they developed have won and continue to win substantial victories for their communities Igniting Justice and Progressive Power will be of interest to activists and concerned citizens looking to understand how lasting political change actually happens as well as all scholars and students of social work urban geography political sociology community development social movements and political science more broadly

We Have Never Been Woke Musa al-Gharbi, 2025-10-07 How a new woke elite uses the language of social justice to gain more power and status without helping the marginalized and disadvantaged Society has never been more egalitarian in theory Prejudice is taboo and diversity is strongly valued At the same time social and economic inequality have exploded In We Have Never Been Woke Musa al Gharbi argues that these trends are closely related each tied to the rise of a new elite the symbolic capitalists In education media nonprofits and beyond members of this elite work primarily with words ideas images and data and are very likely to identify as allies of antiracist feminist LGBTQ and other progressive causes Their dominant ideology is wokeness and while their commitment to equality is sincere they actively benefit from and perpetuate the inequalities they decry Indeed their egalitarian credentials help them gain more power and status often at the expense of the marginalized and disadvantaged We Have Never Been Woke details how the language of social justice is increasingly used to justify this elite and to portray the losers in the knowledge economy as deserving their lot because they think or say the wrong things about race gender and sexuality Al Gharbi's point is not to accuse symbolic capitalists of hypocrisy or cynicism Rather he examines how their genuine beliefs prevent them from recognizing how they contribute to social problems or how their actions regularly provoke backlash against the social justice causes they champion A powerful critique We Have Never Been Woke reveals that only by challenging this elite's self-serving narratives can we hope to address social and economic inequality effectively
