Practising Phonics

at Home and Out and About

If your child is learning phonics at school, you might want to support them at home but feel unsure of what to do.

The right help can boost your child's confidence in the right moments to help them feel sure that all the words they find will be read to them. You can do this by practising reading together. You can also help your child to identify words written on the road, in shops and on signs. This is a fun way to practise reading together.

If you can't see your child reading, then you can help them by reading to them. You can also help your child to identify words written on the road, in shops and on signs. This is a fun way to practise reading together.
