Greener Homes For You Donald Cramp, 2021 A lot of people want to live in an eco friendly house you probably are one of them too right Why Well this simple consideration is enough to help the earth because they want to embark recycling efforts for a much essential cause of being able to live in great harmony with the environment eco living Get all the info you need here Fundamentals of Innovative Sustainable Homes Design and Construction Avi Friedman, 2023-06-26 This book offers ideas and practices on contemporary design concepts and illustrates them with plans and photographs of outstanding examples Current planning and design modes of dwellings and neighborhoods are facing challenges of philosophy and form Past approaches no longer sustain new demands and require innovative thinking The need for a new outlook is propelled by fundamental changes that touch upon environmental economic and social aspects The depletion of non renewable natural resources and climate change are a few of the environmental challenges Increasing costs of material labor land and infrastructure have posed economic challenges with affordability being paramount among them Social challenges are also drawing the attention of designers builders and homeowners Walkable communities aging in place and multigenerational living are some of the concepts considered In addition live work environments have become part of the economic reality for those who wish to work from home which has become possible through digital advances The text would be of interest to scholars working in architecture urban planning and construction Eco-Homes Doctor Jenny Pickerill, 2016-01-15 It is widely understood that good affordable eco housing needs to be at the heart of any attempt to mitigate or adapt to climate change This is the first book to comprehensively explore eco housing from a geographical social and political perspective It starts from the premise that we already know how to build good eco houses and we already have the technology to retrofit existing housing Despite this relatively few eco houses are being built Featuring over thirty case studies of eco housing in Britain Spain Thailand Argentina and the United States Eco Homes examines the ways in which radical changes to our houses such as making them more temporary using natural materials or relying on manual heating and ventilation systems require changes in how we live As such it argues it is not lack of technology or political will that is holding us back from responding to climate change but deep rooted cultural and social understandings of our way of life and what we expect our houses to do for us Home Decoration , 1887 Muir's Original Log Home Guide for Builders and Buyers , 1994

Good Green Homes Jennifer Roberts, 2009-09 Green It conjures images of a meadow in spring for some and the color of money for others What does green have to do with our homes In essence green building or sustainable building means being smart about how we use energy water and building materials so that we can live well without needlessly damaging the environment Creating a good green home isn't just about conservation about using less or saving more although that's certainly part of it It's about creating better homes that are easier on the environment less expensive over the long term and more delightful to come home to That's the message Jennifer Roberts wants to share in Good Green Homes the ultimate new guide for people who want to live in comfortable healthy environmentally conscious homes With some simple steps outlined in this book you can save money and do your part to help save the environment For instance using an energy efficient light bulb saves you money It also results in less demand for electricity which in turn results in less pollution from power plants which may help a child with asthma breathe a little easier If you associate green built housing with the unconventional or the quirky tree houses geodesic domes dwellings constructed of tires or soda bottles think again Perfect for homeowners remodelers renters who might be surprised by how much is within their power to change architects builders and interior designers this book lays out seven fundamental principles of green building illustrated with more than 150 color and 20 black and white photographs of more than twenty five homes Jennifer Roberts launched two retail stores in San Francisco specializing in environmentally sensible consumer products including household goods and is a freelance writer and editor on topics that include energy efficient building design and systems     Home Topics ,1881     The Standard Periodical Directory ,2003     Resources in Education ,1982     Forest and Stream ,1886     A Primer on Sustainable Building Dianna Lopez Barnett,William D. Browning,1995 Written for architects developers general contractors landscapers and home owners this book demonstrates how a holistic approach to design can result in a building even better than the sum of its parts Topics include site and habitat restoration transportation integration edible landscapes energy efficient design materials selection indoor air quality and cost implications plus an extensive bibliography and source lists     The Art Amateur ,1899     Sunset ,2010     The Rough Guide to Shopping with a Conscience Duncan Clark,Richie Unterberger,2007 This Rough Guide brings to the forefront the many issues surrounding the impact of daily shopping habits on this ever shrinking planet Two color Illustrations     Sustainable Design for Interior Environments Susan M. Winchip,2007 Sustainable Design for Interior Environments is the first comprehensive textbook on the subject and is intended for students and instructors as well as practicing designers architects contractors and facility managers With over 150 illustrations and interactive activities the text provides a complete overview of the principles and strategies for sustainable design     Resources in Education ,1995     Better Homes and Gardens ,2002     Collier's Encyclopedia ,1986     The Library Journal ,1998-10 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately     Popular Home Decoration Mary Davis Gillies,1940
