Here for Good: Community Foundations and the Challenges of the 21st Century Terry Mazany, David C. Perry, 2014-12-18 Community foundations bring together the resources of individuals families and businesses to support effective nonprofits in their communities Over the years foundations have come to engage community problem solving through more than just grant making They have added a rich array of other activities including programs of community capacity building active modes of advocacy and centres for meeting In 2011 the 700 institutions in the United States gave an estimated 4.2 billion to a variety of nonprofit activities in fields that included the arts and education health and human services the environment and disaster relief The origins of this book stem from conversations among the leadership of community foundations about the challenges they must overcome in order to make such foundational contributions to their communities As community foundations enter the second century of their existence the first foundation was formed in Cleveland in 1914 the need for knowledge and best practices has never been greater This book with expert authors representing the best and the brightest in this important field fills that need

Ending Social Promotion Without Leaving Children Behind Jennifer Sloan McCombs, Sheila Nataraj Kirby, Louis T. Mariano, 2009-10-15 The New York City Department of Education asked RAND to conduct an independent longitudinal evaluation of its 5th grade promotion policy The findings of that study conducted between March 2006 and August 2009 provide a comprehensive view of the policy's implementation and its impact on student outcomes particularly for students at risk of retention and those who were retained in grade
