Extremist Propaganda in Social Media Michael Erbschloe, 2018-06-28 Extremist Propaganda in Social Media A Threat to Homeland Security presents both an analysis of the impact of propaganda in social media and the rise of extremism in mass society from technological and social perspectives The book identifies the current phenomenon what shall be dubbed for purposes of this book Blissstopian Societies characterized in the abiding ignorance is bliss principle whereby a population is complacent and has unquestioning acceptance of a social doctrine without challenge and introspection In these subcultures the malleable population self select social media content news and propaganda delivery mechanisms By doing so they expose themselves only to content that motivates reinforces and contributes to their isolation alienation and self regulation of the social groups and individuals In doing this objective news is dismissed fake or news otherwise intended to misinform reinforces their stereotyped beliefs about society and the world around them This phenomenon is unfortunately not fake news but a real threat to which counterterror intelligence Homeland Security law enforcement the military and global organizations must be hyper vigilant of now and into the foreseeable future Chapters cite numerous examples from the 2016 political election the Russia investigation into the Trump Campaign ISIS domestic US terrorists among many other examples of extremist and radicalizing rhetoric The book illustrates throughout that this contrived and manufactured bliss has fueled the rise and perpetuation of hate crimes radicalism and violence in such groups as ISIS Boko Haram Neo Nazis white separatists and white supremacists in the United States in addition to perpetuating ethnic cleansing actions around the world This dynamic has led to increased political polarization in the United States and abroad while furthering an unwillingness and inability to both compromise or see others perspectives further fomenting insular populations increasing willing to harm others and do violence Extremist Propaganda in Social Media relates current Blissstopian practices to real world hate speech and violence connecting how such information is consumed by groups and translated into violent action The book is an invaluable resources for those professionals that require an awareness of social media radicalization including social media strategists law enforcement Homeland Security professionals military planners and operatives anyone tasked with countering combat such violent factions and fringes in conflict situations

Social Media for Government Staci Zavattaro, Thomas Bryer, 2016-03-10 Social media is playing a growing role within public administration and with it there is an increasing need to understand the connection between social media research and what actually takes place in government agencies Most of the existing books on the topic are scholarly in nature often leaving out the vital theory practice connection This book joins theory with practice within the public sector and explains how the effectiveness of social media can be maximized The chapters are written by leading practitioners and span topics like how to manage employee use of social media sites how emergency managers reach the public during a crisis situation applying public record management methods to social media efforts how to create a social media brand how social media can help meet government objectives such as transparency while juggling privacy laws and much more For each topic a collection of practitioner insights regarding the best practices and tools they have discovered are included Social Media for Government responds to calls within the overall public administration discipline to enhance the theory practice connection giving practitioners space to tell academics what is happening in the field in order to encourage further meaningful research into social media use within government Air
