Proven pointers how to write an awesome cover letter. Follow this 30 second read and you won't fail!

by Kay Farnell - Environmental Jobs Network

1 KEEP IT SHORT

A Hiring Manager spends on average 6 seconds reading each CV. This means, it is likely they will spend only 1-2 seconds reading your cover letter!

2 MAKE IT SPECIFIC

- Address it by name to the appropriate person in the company.
- Ensure you include the title of the job you are applying for.
- Detail some of your skills and how they are a fit for the job description and will benefit their company - include real life working examples here.

3 SHOWCASE YOUR RESEARCH

Related to the above point - use your cover letter as an opportunity to show them you've been researching areas such as company achievements and culture.

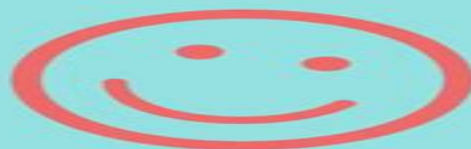

4 MAKE IT ORIGINAL

By this we mean don't just rehash a section of your curriculum vitae. Ensure to include specific skills and proven strengths that aren't already in your CV.

5 CLOSE WELL

Thank the reader for reading your cover letter and let them know will be in touch within a certain time frame to see if they require any further information.
