Stewart,Patricia O'Connell,2016-11-29 In this pioneering guide two business authorities introduce the new discipline of Service Design and reveal why trying new strategies for pleasing customers isn t enough to differentiate your business it needs to be designed for service from the ground up Woo Wow and Win reveals the importance of designing your company around service and offers clear practical strategies based on the idea that the design of services is markedly different than manufacturing. Bestselling authors and business experts Thomas A Stewart and Patricia O Connell contend that most companies both digital and brick and mortar B2B or B2C are not designed for service to provide an experience that matches a customer's expectations with every interaction and serves the company's needs. When customers have more choices than ever before, study after study reveals that it's the experience that makes the difference. To provide great experiences that keep customers coming back, businesses must design their services with as much care as their products. Service Design is proactive; it is about delivering on your promise to customers in accordance with your strategy, not about acceding to customer dictates. Woo Wow and Win teaches you how to create Ahhh moments when the customer makes a positive judgment and to avoid Ow moments when you lose a sale or worse customer trust. Whether you're giving a haircut, selling life insurance, or managing an office, building your customer is as much a part of your business as your employees are. Together you and customers create a bank of trust fueled by knowledge of each other's skills and preferences. This is Customer Capital, the authors explain, and it is jointly owned. But it's up to you to manage it profitably. Innovative yet grounded in real world examples, Woo Wow and Win is the key strategy for winning customers and keeping them.

Media and Society Nicholas Carah, 2021-05-05. How do media platforms organise social life? How do media empower or disempower our identities? How do we understand the impact of algorithms? How are media audiences produced and managed? Media Society introduces the role of the media in social, cultural, political, and economic life, unpacking the increasing entanglement of digital media technology with our everyday lives. It explores the relationship between meaning and power in an age of participatory culture, social media, and digital platforms. An age where we both create and consume content and where we both give and gain attention, translating our social lives into huge flows of data. Associate Professor Nicholas Carah shows how a critical approach to power helps us not only to understand the role media play in shaping the social but also how we can become critically informed media citizens ourselves able to participate and be heard in meaningful ways. Media Society expertly introduces all the key concepts and ideas you need to know and then puts theory into practice by tying them to contemporary case studies. From using Ghostery to track how your personal data is being collected to exploring misinformation on social media via YouTube to the reality of internships and freelancing in today's digital media industry. It is essential reading for students of media communication and cultural studies.
